Mrs. F. G. Albright Leaves Phone Post

PAGE — The Page Telephone company has secured Mrs. Roy Cunningham as operator to replace Mrs. F. G. Albright, whose resignation became effective October 1.

Mrs. Cunningham has been a clerk at the Farmer's store for several years. Mrs. Melvin Smith will take her place there as a regular clerk.

Mrs. Albright has served the telephone company as operator continuously for nine years. She is undecided what she will do or where she will go. For the present she has stored her household goods and will do some visiting before she decides where she will make her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sanders returned Tuesday from the west coast. They visited their sons: Earl and family, at Irrigon, Ore.; Marlowe and family, at Portland, Ore.; and Gene and family at Lancaster, Calif.
