

Page News

Messrs. Otto Terrill, Daniel Page and Rev. Baty sponsored cars for about 20 young people who attended a youth rally at Lynch Monday evening. Mrs. Evelyn Gray left Wednesday for Plainview where she will visit her daughters, Mrs. Gene Baber and Mrs. Keith Weyer, and will go on to Blue Hill where she will spend a week in the home of her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gray. Mr. and Mrs. Otto Terrill went to Grand Island Tuesday, October 2, where they met his mother, Mrs. Celia Terrill, who spent the summer months with her sisters at McCook and Sterling. Mrs. Otto Terrill and her mother, Mrs. Alma Tegeler, were Thursday visitors of the latter's sister, Mrs. Anna Stolle, at the Frank Wisch home. Mrs. William O'Brian well entertained the members of the Wesleyan Missionary society today (Thursday). Mr. and Mrs. Anton Nissen left Sunday for a visit with the Lem Webb family at Mitchell, the Milton Nissen family at Sidney and the Esmond Weber family at Denver, Colo. Marilyn Held drove to Lynch Saturday where he visited his grandmother, Mrs. Grace Edson, and the Donald Allen family. Mr. and Mrs. Chet Randall and daughter, Ramona, of Ankerly, Ia., were guests in the Frank Beelaert home on Wednesday and Thursday, October 3 and 4, enroute to western Nebraska to attend cattle sales. Mr. and Mrs. Dale Stevens and family of Atkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Miller and daughter, Charisse, of O'Neill and Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Gray were Sunday guests in the Robert Gray home. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hill and daughters of Ewing were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Sorenson and family. Mr. and Mrs. Marion Parks Mr. and Mrs. Owen Parks, Mrs. Fred Nashlund, all of Page, Harold Parks of Stuart attended funeral services for their uncle, Chet Ogan at Creston, on Monday. Mrs. Ray Snell and Mrs. Evelyn Gray were hostess to the members of the RNA lodge group at the IOOF hall Wednesday evening. Mrs. Les Riege is taking Mrs. Melvin Smith's place as clerk at the Farmer's store because of the illness and death of Mrs. Smith's mother, Mrs. Hattie Stewart. Mrs. Allen Haynes accompanied her brother, Elmer Reed, to Roy, Ia. on Wednesday, October 3, where she attended the WSCS meeting that afternoon and was a guest of her sister, Mrs. Fred Storm, until Friday, Mr. Reed was a Monday to Wednesday Page visitor in the homes of his sisters, Mrs. Harry Harper and Mrs. Allen Haynes.

16th WSCS Anniversary is Observed — PAGE—The 16th anniversary of the change from Ladies Aid to Women's Society for Christian Service has observed the H. S. Harper home last Thursday when members of the Methodist group met. Members of the King's Daughters will hold a food and bake sale Saturday, October 13, at the Coenen Cafe. Plans are progressing for the annual election day bazaar and serving of meals and lunches. Mrs. Elmer Trowbridge lighted the candles on the anniversary cake. Mrs. Merwyn French, sr., and Mrs. Lynn Parks were hostesses to 30 present. Mrs. Carrie Hunter of Redbird was a guest.

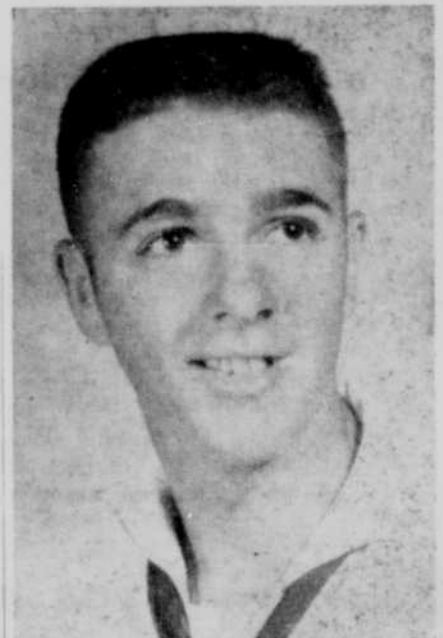

Finishes Army Transportation Course—SPENCER—Army Pfc. Harlan G. Prokop, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Prokop of Spencer, recently was graduated from the transportation school's instructional methods course at Ft. Eustis, Va. Prokop, a former student at Southern State Teachers college in Springfield, S. D., entered the army last November and completed basic training at Ft. Chaffee, Ark. His wife, Rose, lives in Williamsburg, Va.

Recruit Training—ATKINSON—Garrod M. Roberts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Roberts of Atkinson was graduated from recruit training September 29 at the naval training center, at Great Lakes, Ill. Following two weeks leave, he will report to shipboard duties or service schools depending on the qualifications he has demonstrated.

Furniture Repair Lesson Topic—Elkhorn project club met at Mrs. Bob Cook's home Tuesday with 15 members present. Mrs. Tess Prodivinsky was appointed goodwill chairman. The lesson, "Repairing Furniture for Refinishing" was given by Mrs. Cook, assisted by Mr. Ernest Price. Co-hostesses were Mesdames M. A. Schelkopf, Hattie Kindlund and Hazel Boatman. The next meeting will be Tuesday, November 13.

Celebrates Birthday—Bobby McKay celebrated his ninth birthday anniversary Sunday at a party for 10 guests at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carol H. McKay.

NEW WALKS —AMELIA—New cement walks were laid at the Methodist church last Thursday by volunteer workers. Ladies served lunch.

Brothers Spend Leaves Here

Robert Jay McConnell (left) and Larry Gene McConnell, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Howard McConnell of O'Neill, have enjoyed simultaneous leaves here with their parents and other relatives. Jay is in helicopter mechanical work with the navy at Elizabeth City, N.J. His wife and daughter arrived earlier. She is the former Elroy Bettefield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Bettefield. Larry is stationed at Mermar base, San Diego, Calif., where he is a jet machinist with the navy.

Rock Falls News

Mr. and Mrs. Don Hynes and Lynda were supper guests Sunday at the George Calkins home. Other guests were Capt. and Mrs. Duane Narigan and daughter of Colorado, Springs, Colo., who are visiting there before leaving for Germany where they will be the next three years. Mrs. Narigan is a sister of Mrs. Calkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vequist were Sunday afternoon visitors at the Lyle Vequist home. The children enjoyed popcorn balls their grandmother made for them. Mr. and Mrs. John Conard of Emmet sent Sunday afternoon at the Albert Widfeldt home and took several pictures of the stone buildings, which are famous landmarks at the old Rock Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. James Curran and Ardell and grand daughter Peggy, had Sunday dinner at the home of their son, Francis, and family. In the afternoon the two Mrs. Curran's visited Dale Curran's oldest daughter, Judy, in St. Anthony's hospital, where she was recovering from an appendectomy which was performed Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Sterns visited Sunday at the Cal Seger home in Atkinson. In the evening the two families had supper with Mr. and Mrs. Don Vanderbeck at Chambers. Mrs. Sterns and Mrs. Seger are sisters of Mr. Vanderbeck.

The Don Drickey family of Bristow were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. William Clausen. Friday evening guests at the John Schultz home included Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Johnson of O'Neill and daughter, Lynette of Denver, Colo., and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Johnson and Linda.

Rita Vequist went home with her teacher, Miss Lansworth, last Thursday and attended the football game that night. Nels Schultz and his room mate from Omaha were supper guests Saturday of the John Schultz family. Nels brought his sister, Shirley, home for the week-end. She is attending pre-nursing school in Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Morrow and boys, Maynard Morrow and daughter and Don Adamson were dinner guests Friday at the Albert Derickson home and Sunday at the Arden Larson home in Venus, meanwhile enjoying the ball game via TV.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Derickson and boys spent Friday at the Albert Derickson home and Sunday at the Arden Larson home in Venus, meanwhile enjoying the ball game via TV.

The L-shaped building is made of concrete blocks with an exterior veneer of pressed brick. It is located on a corner lot, 100 x 105 ft., at State and Carberry streets and is back about 20 ft. from the street lot line.

Floors are all on lot level and there are no steps in the inside of the building. Total floor space is 4,676 square feet. The chapel is 28 x 48 ft. and will seat around 170 persons.

Walls are lined with birch and plywood in a bark finish and the front wall is lined with a shanting weave design.

Go East to Attend Weddings — Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Gallagher left for Washington, D.C. Tuesday to attend the wedding Saturday, October 13, of Mrs. Gallagher's niece, Miss Kathleen P. Dawson. Mr. Gallagher will return while his wife visits her mother and other relatives. She plans to leave Washington for Detroit, Mich., where Mr. Gallagher will join her when they attend the wedding of W. J. Froelich, Jr. Saturday, October 20.

EMMET—Jesse Willis went to St. Anthony's hospital Monday, October 1, after having a heart attack. He returned home Saturday. Dean Perry was sick in bed with tonsillitis Friday and Saturday. Mrs. Elmer Schaff was sick with influenza this week.

Winners at Chez-a-Marl held Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Edward M. Gleason were the Mesdames G. Owen Cole of Emmet, Joe Stutz and W. J. Nelson.

Gregory Pastor, to U.S., Speaks at Rally — ATKINSON — The Lutheran Women's Missionary league of Immanuel Lutheran church (Missouri synod) recently was hostess to the annual zone fall rally and silver tea. The president, Mrs. Elmer Kaczor of Spencer, conducted the morning business meeting. Mrs. C. B. Drake of Omaha, district LWML president, reported on district league proceedings. The afternoon speaker was Rev. A. Lehman of Gregory, S.D., who came to the United States from Germany in 1952 on a scholarship and completed his study for the ministry at St. Louis, Mo. His talk concerned conditions of the church in Germany.

School Lands to Be Discussed — The second annual land inspection tour of the state board of educational lands and funds has been scheduled for November 4-8, inclusive. Purpose of the tour, according to Board Secretary Elmer H. Mahlin, is to give board members an opportunity to meet and visit informally with school land leaseholders and other interested parties are scheduled at the Holt county courthouse Monday, November 5, 1:30 to 3:30 p.m.; Cherry county courthouse at Valentine, Tuesday, November 6, 1:30 to 2:40 p.m.

After the O'Neill meeting the board will go to Bassett to spend the night. Recruiting Conference to Be Held Here — Army recruiters from Spencer, Ia., and Sioux City, Norfolk and several representatives from Omaha recruiting main station will be in O'Neill Saturday for a conference.

WAC-Sgt. Cecilia Perfetti will be in O'Neill Friday afternoon and Saturday. Anyone desiring information may see her at the O'Neill recruiting office.

Youth, 13, in Stolen Car Killed — AMELIA—A car belonging to Dick Brau of Omaha, who is known here, reported stolen last week, was found abandoned in a park at West Point. The car was not damaged.

A 13-year-old boy from Boys Town, Iowa, who was driving the car, was killed near Yankton, S. D., when another car he was driving went out of control.

Evangelistic Meetings Start Tonight — Evangelist and Mrs. John Voska from the state of Wyoming will begin special revival services at the Assembly of God today (Thursday). Their evangelistic tours have taken them to many of the states in the nation. A special musical program will be featured during the preliminary part of each service.

Firemen Fight Prairie Blaze — CHAMBERS—The Chambers firemen were called to the Norman Grosse place, three miles south of the Hoerle station, Friday morning, October 5, to combat a prairie fire. No hay was destroyed and the fire was brought under control before it had covered much territory.

BLEACHERS BEING BUILT — New steel bleachers, 20 feet in length and five tiers high, are being constructed by the vocational agriculture class of O'Neill high school. The bleachers will be portable and will be employed in Carney park for football, baseball and rodeo events. Chairman A. P. Jazzkowiak of the city board said additional bleachers will be added from time-to-time.

Group Elects Officers — EWING—The newly elected officer of the Youth Fellowship of the Methodist church are: Patty Wright, president; Patricia Hahlbeck, vice-president; Carolyn Tarns, secretary-treasurer; Virginia McDonald, news reporter.

NAMED TO BOARD — Keith Abart of O'Neill was elected to the board of directors of the Associated Credit Bureaus of Nebraska when the group held its meeting Sunday and Monday in Fremont.

John R. Gallagher Attorney-at-Law First Nat'l Bank Bldg. O'NEILL — PHONE 11

Ewing Minister Tells of Life in Sudan

EWING—The sacrament of the Lord's supper was observed by the pastor in Ewing in 1918-1920, arrived to be a guest of her classmates, Dr. and Mrs. William Ross. She and her husband spent more than 30 years working as missionaries to the Shulla tribe in the Sudan, central Africa, where lions and other wild animals are a common sight around. Snakes 10 feet long were common in that area. The Shullas are seven feet tall, some even taller and are black and shiny as polished ebony. Mrs. Heasty will tell of her experiences and work in the Sudan at 8:00 p. m. in the church Sunday evening. The public is invited.

Other Ewing News — A reception for the faculty of the Ewing public school will be held Thursday evening, October 18, at the school auditorium. This event is sponsored each year by the churches of Ewing.

Brother Hospitalized — CHAMBERS—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wood left last Thursday for Porterville, Calif., to visit his brother, John Wood, who is seriously ill. Mrs. A. D. Miller, who has been a patient in St. Anthony's hospital in O'Neill for several weeks, was taken to St. Joseph's hospital in Sioux City Saturday and on Monday brought to her home at Chambers where she will be cared for.

Young Adults Meet — AMELIA—The young adult group of the Methodist church met Friday evening, October 5 at the church annex. Mr. and Mrs. George Fullerton were host and hostess to a pot luck supper. Mrs. Harry Meyers had charge of the devotionals, and Mrs. George Fullerton sponsored the recreation.

Visits Mother — CHAMBERS — Mrs. G. H. Grimes spent Saturday, October 6, with her mother, Mrs. Lois Adair, birthday anniversary. Mrs. Adams, at St. Anthony's hospital helping her celebrate her 85th anniversary has been a patient there for the past two years.

SMA Teachers Going to Convention — The teachers from St. Mary's academy will be attending the archdiocesan Catholic teachers' convention at Omaha on Friday. No classes at the academy will convene on that date.

Former Residents Visit — AMELIA—Mr. and Mrs. John Jones, who were residents here many years ago, were calling on friends recently. They now live in California.

Winners Named — Winners at Delta Dick held last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Edward M. Gallagher were Mrs. H. J. Lohaus and Evelyn Stannard.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Hartigan of Norfolk spent the weekend visiting relatives in Inman.

spending a week with his mother, Mrs. John Wunner, in Ewing and with her mother, Mrs. Bertha Wegner, at Orchard. Mr. and Mrs. John Shiffbauer jr., and son of Norfolk were weekend guests at the home of his sister, Mrs. William Hobbs. A recent guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kropp was her aunt, Mrs. Catherine Adenhaus.

The Future Homemakers of America, Ewing chapter, enjoyed a bike hike and a picnic supper along the Elkhorn river near here Tuesday, October 2. The new members, Coralee Schmisser, Betty Schindler, Ann Rotherham and Lois Kaczor, were initiated. Miss Alice Hamilton, their advisor, accompanied them. ported the day's work as being very satisfactory.

AMELIA—The young adult group of the Methodist church met Friday evening, October 5 at the church annex. Mr. and Mrs. George Fullerton were host and hostess to a pot luck supper. Mrs. Harry Meyers had charge of the devotionals, and Mrs. George Fullerton sponsored the recreation.

CHAMBERS — Mrs. G. H. Grimes spent Saturday, October 6, with her mother, Mrs. Lois Adair, birthday anniversary. Mrs. Adams, at St. Anthony's hospital helping her celebrate her 85th anniversary has been a patient there for the past two years.

The teachers from St. Mary's academy will be attending the archdiocesan Catholic teachers' convention at Omaha on Friday. No classes at the academy will convene on that date.

AMELIA—Mr. and Mrs. John Jones, who were residents here many years ago, were calling on friends recently. They now live in California.

Winners at Delta Dick held last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Edward M. Gallagher were Mrs. H. J. Lohaus and Evelyn Stannard.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Hartigan of Norfolk spent the weekend visiting relatives in Inman.

spending a week with his mother, Mrs. John Wunner, in Ewing and with her mother, Mrs. Bertha Wegner, at Orchard. Mr. and Mrs. John Shiffbauer jr., and son of Norfolk were weekend guests at the home of his sister, Mrs. William Hobbs. A recent guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kropp was her aunt, Mrs. Catherine Adenhaus.

The Future Homemakers of America, Ewing chapter, enjoyed a bike hike and a picnic supper along the Elkhorn river near here Tuesday, October 2. The new members, Coralee Schmisser, Betty Schindler, Ann Rotherham and Lois Kaczor, were initiated. Miss Alice Hamilton, their advisor, accompanied them. ported the day's work as being very satisfactory.

AMELIA—The young adult group of the Methodist church met Friday evening, October 5 at the church annex. Mr. and Mrs. George Fullerton were host and hostess to a pot luck supper. Mrs. Harry Meyers had charge of the devotionals, and Mrs. George Fullerton sponsored the recreation.

CHAMBERS — Mrs. G. H. Grimes spent Saturday, October 6, with her mother, Mrs. Lois Adair, birthday anniversary. Mrs. Adams, at St. Anthony's hospital helping her celebrate her 85th anniversary has been a patient there for the past two years.

The teachers from St. Mary's academy will be attending the archdiocesan Catholic teachers' convention at Omaha on Friday. No classes at the academy will convene on that date.

AMELIA—Mr. and Mrs. John Jones, who were residents here many years ago, were calling on friends recently. They now live in California.

AMELIA—The young adult group of the Methodist church met Friday evening, October 5 at the church annex. Mr. and Mrs. George Fullerton were host and hostess to a pot luck supper. Mrs. Harry Meyers had charge of the devotionals, and Mrs. George Fullerton sponsored the recreation.

CHAMBERS — Mrs. G. H. Grimes spent Saturday, October 6, with her mother, Mrs. Lois Adair, birthday anniversary. Mrs. Adams, at St. Anthony's hospital helping her celebrate her 85th anniversary has been a patient there for the past two years.

The teachers from St. Mary's academy will be attending the archdiocesan Catholic teachers' convention at Omaha on Friday. No classes at the academy will convene on that date.

AMELIA—Mr. and Mrs. John Jones, who were residents here many years ago, were calling on friends recently. They now live in California.

Winners at Delta Dick held last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Edward M. Gallagher were Mrs. H. J. Lohaus and Evelyn Stannard.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Hartigan of Norfolk spent the weekend visiting relatives in Inman.

spending a week with his mother, Mrs. John Wunner, in Ewing and with her mother, Mrs. Bertha Wegner, at Orchard. Mr. and Mrs. John Shiffbauer jr., and son of Norfolk were weekend guests at the home of his sister, Mrs. William Hobbs. A recent guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kropp was her aunt, Mrs. Catherine Adenhaus.

The Future Homemakers of America, Ewing chapter, enjoyed a bike hike and a picnic supper along the Elkhorn river near here Tuesday, October 2. The new members, Coralee Schmisser, Betty Schindler, Ann Rotherham and Lois Kaczor, were initiated. Miss Alice Hamilton, their advisor, accompanied them. ported the day's work as being very satisfactory.

AMELIA—The young adult group of the Methodist church met Friday evening, October 5 at the church annex. Mr. and Mrs. George Fullerton were host and hostess to a pot luck supper. Mrs. Harry Meyers had charge of the devotionals, and Mrs. George Fullerton sponsored the recreation.

CHAMBERS — Mrs. G. H. Grimes spent Saturday, October 6, with her mother, Mrs. Lois Adair, birthday anniversary. Mrs. Adams, at St. Anthony's hospital helping her celebrate her 85th anniversary has been a patient there for the past two years.

The teachers from St. Mary's academy will be attending the archdiocesan Catholic teachers' convention at Omaha on Friday. No classes at the academy will convene on that date.

AMELIA—Mr. and Mrs. John Jones, who were residents here many years ago, were calling on friends recently. They now live in California.

Winners at Delta Dick held last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Edward M. Gallagher were Mrs. H. J. Lohaus and Evelyn Stannard.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Hartigan of Norfolk spent the weekend visiting relatives in Inman.

spending a week with his mother, Mrs. John Wunner, in Ewing and with her mother, Mrs. Bertha Wegner, at Orchard. Mr. and Mrs. John Shiffbauer jr., and son of Norfolk were weekend guests at the home of his sister, Mrs. William Hobbs. A recent guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kropp was her aunt, Mrs. Catherine Adenhaus.

The Future Homemakers of America, Ewing chapter, enjoyed a bike hike and a picnic supper along the Elkhorn river near here Tuesday, October 2. The new members, Coralee Schmisser, Betty Schindler, Ann Rotherham and Lois Kaczor, were initiated. Miss Alice Hamilton, their advisor, accompanied them. ported the day's work as being very satisfactory.

AMELIA—The young adult group of the Methodist church met Friday evening, October 5 at the church annex. Mr. and Mrs. George Fullerton were host and hostess to a pot luck supper. Mrs. Harry Meyers had charge of the devotionals, and Mrs. George Fullerton sponsored the recreation.

CHAMBERS — Mrs. G. H. Grimes spent Saturday, October 6, with her mother, Mrs. Lois Adair, birthday anniversary. Mrs. Adams, at St. Anthony's hospital helping her celebrate her 85th anniversary has been a patient there for the past two years.

The teachers from St. Mary's academy will be attending the archdiocesan Catholic teachers' convention at Omaha on Friday. No classes at the academy will convene on that date.

AMELIA—Mr. and Mrs. John Jones, who were residents here many years ago, were calling on friends recently. They now live in California.

Winners at Delta Dick held last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Edward M. Gallagher were Mrs. H. J. Lohaus and Evelyn Stannard.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Hartigan of Norfolk spent the weekend visiting relatives in Inman.

spending a week with his mother, Mrs. John Wunner, in Ewing and with her mother, Mrs. Bertha Wegner, at Orchard. Mr. and Mrs. John Shiffbauer jr., and son of Norfolk were weekend guests at the home of his sister, Mrs. William Hobbs. A recent guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kropp was her aunt, Mrs. Catherine Adenhaus.

The Future Homemakers of America, Ewing chapter, enjoyed a bike hike and a picnic supper along the Elkhorn river near here Tuesday, October 2. The new members, Coralee Schmisser, Betty Schindler, Ann Rotherham and Lois Kaczor, were initiated. Miss Alice Hamilton, their advisor, accompanied them. ported the day's work as being very satisfactory.

AMELIA—The young adult group of the Methodist church met Friday evening, October 5 at the church annex. Mr. and Mrs. George Fullerton were host and hostess to a pot luck supper. Mrs. Harry Meyers had charge of the devotionals, and Mrs. George Fullerton sponsored the recreation.

AMELIA—The young adult group of the Methodist church met Friday evening, October 5 at the church annex. Mr. and Mrs. George Fullerton were host and hostess to a pot luck supper. Mrs. Harry Meyers had charge of the devotionals, and Mrs. George Fullerton sponsored the recreation.

CHAMBERS — Mrs. G. H. Grimes spent Saturday, October 6, with her mother, Mrs. Lois Adair, birthday anniversary. Mrs. Adams, at St. Anthony's hospital helping her celebrate her 85th anniversary has been a patient there for the past two years.

The teachers from St. Mary's academy will be attending the archdiocesan Catholic teachers' convention at Omaha on Friday. No classes at the academy will convene on that date.

AMELIA—Mr. and Mrs. John Jones, who were residents here many years ago, were calling on friends recently. They now live in California.

Winners at Delta Dick held last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Edward M. Gallagher were Mrs. H. J. Lohaus and Evelyn Stannard.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Hartigan of Norfolk spent the weekend visiting relatives in Inman.

spending a week with his mother, Mrs. John Wunner, in Ewing and with her mother, Mrs. Bertha Wegner, at Orchard. Mr. and Mrs. John Shiffbauer jr., and son of Norfolk were weekend guests at the home of his sister, Mrs. William Hobbs. A recent guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kropp was her aunt, Mrs. Catherine Adenhaus.

The Future Homemakers of America, Ewing chapter, enjoyed a bike hike and a picnic supper along the Elkhorn river near here Tuesday, October 2. The new members, Coralee Schmisser, Betty Schindler, Ann Rotherham and Lois Kaczor, were initiated. Miss Alice Hamilton, their advisor, accompanied them. ported the day's work as being very satisfactory.

AMELIA—The young adult group of the Methodist church met Friday evening, October 5 at the church annex. Mr. and Mrs. George Fullerton were host and hostess to a pot luck supper. Mrs. Harry Meyers had charge of the devotionals, and Mrs. George Fullerton sponsored the recreation.

CHAMBERS — Mrs. G. H. Grimes spent Saturday, October 6, with her mother, Mrs. Lois Adair, birthday anniversary. Mrs. Adams, at St. Anthony's hospital helping her celebrate her 85th anniversary has been a patient there for the past two years.

The teachers from St. Mary's academy will be attending the archdiocesan Catholic teachers' convention at Omaha on Friday. No classes at the academy will convene on that date.

AMELIA—Mr. and Mrs. John Jones, who were residents here many years ago, were calling on friends recently. They now live in California.

Winners at Delta Dick held last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Edward M. Gallagher were Mrs. H. J. Lohaus and Evelyn Stannard.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Hartigan of Norfolk spent the weekend visiting relatives in Inman.

spending a week with his mother, Mrs. John Wunner, in Ewing and with her mother, Mrs. Bertha Wegner, at Orchard. Mr. and Mrs. John Shiffbauer jr., and son of Norfolk were weekend guests at the home of his sister, Mrs. William Hobbs. A recent guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kropp was her aunt, Mrs. Catherine Adenhaus.

The Future Homemakers of America, Ewing chapter, enjoyed a bike hike and a picnic supper along the Elkhorn river near here Tuesday, October 2. The new members, Coralee Schmisser, Betty Schindler, Ann Rotherham and Lois Kaczor, were initiated. Miss Alice Hamilton, their advisor, accompanied them. ported the day's work as being very satisfactory.

AMELIA—The young adult group of the Methodist church met Friday evening, October 5 at the church annex. Mr. and Mrs. George Fullerton were host and hostess to a pot luck supper. Mrs. Harry Meyers had charge of the devotionals, and Mrs. George Fullerton sponsored the recreation.

CHAMBERS — Mrs. G. H. Grimes spent Saturday, October 6, with her mother, Mrs. Lois Adair, birthday anniversary. Mrs. Adams, at St. Anthony's hospital helping her celebrate her 85th anniversary has been a patient there for the past two years.

The teachers from St. Mary's academy will be attending the archdiocesan Catholic teachers' convention at Omaha on Friday. No classes at the academy will convene on that date.

AMELIA—Mr. and Mrs. John Jones, who were residents here many years ago, were calling on friends recently. They now live in California.

Winners at Delta Dick held last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Edward M. Gallagher were Mrs. H. J. Lohaus and Evelyn Stannard.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Hartigan of Norfolk spent the weekend visiting relatives in Inman.

spending a week with his mother, Mrs. John Wunner, in Ewing and with her mother, Mrs. Bertha Wegner, at Orchard. Mr. and Mrs. John Shiffbauer jr., and son of Norfolk were weekend guests at the home of his sister, Mrs. William Hobbs. A recent guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kropp was her aunt, Mrs. Catherine Adenhaus.

The Future Homemakers of America, Ewing chapter, enjoyed a bike hike and a picnic supper along the Elkhorn river near here Tuesday, October 2. The new members, Coralee Schmisser, Betty Schindler, Ann Rotherham and Lois Kaczor, were initiated. Miss Alice Hamilton, their advisor, accompanied them. ported the day's work as being very satisfactory.

AMELIA—The young adult group of the Methodist church met Friday evening, October 5 at the church annex. Mr. and Mrs. George Fullerton were host and hostess to a pot luck supper. Mrs. Harry Meyers had charge of the devotionals, and Mrs. George Fullerton sponsored the recreation.

AMELIA—The young adult group of the Methodist church met Friday evening, October 5 at the church annex. Mr. and Mrs. George Fullerton were host and hostess to a pot luck supper. Mrs. Harry Meyers had charge of the devotionals, and Mrs. George Fullerton sponsored the recreation.

CHAMBERS — Mrs. G. H. Grimes spent Saturday, October 6, with her mother, Mrs. Lois Adair, birthday anniversary. Mrs. Adams, at St. Anthony's hospital helping her celebrate her 85th anniversary has been a patient there for the past two years.

The teachers from St. Mary's academy will be attending the archdiocesan Catholic teachers' convention at Omaha on Friday. No classes at the academy will convene on that date.

AMELIA—Mr. and Mrs. John Jones, who were residents here many years ago, were calling on friends recently. They now live in California.

Winners at Delta Dick held last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Edward M. Gallagher were Mrs. H. J. Lohaus and Evelyn Stannard.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Hartigan of Norfolk spent the weekend visiting relatives in Inman.

spending a week with his mother, Mrs. John Wunner, in Ewing and with her mother, Mrs. Bertha Wegner, at Orchard. Mr. and Mrs. John Shiffbauer jr., and son of Norfolk were weekend guests at the home of his sister, Mrs. William Hobbs. A recent guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kropp was her aunt, Mrs. Catherine Adenhaus.

The Future Homemakers of America, Ewing chapter, enjoyed a bike hike and a picnic supper along the Elkhorn river near here Tuesday, October 2. The new members, Coralee Schmisser, Betty Schindler, Ann Rotherham and Lois Kaczor, were initiated. Miss Alice Hamilton, their advisor, accompanied them. ported the day's work as being very satisfactory.

AMELIA—The young adult group of the Methodist church met Friday evening, October 5 at the church annex. Mr. and Mrs. George Fullerton were host and hostess to a pot luck supper. Mrs. Harry Meyers had charge of the devotionals, and Mrs. George Fullerton sponsored the recreation.

CHAMBERS — Mrs. G. H. Grimes spent Saturday, October 6, with her mother, Mrs. Lois Adair, birthday anniversary. Mrs. Adams, at St. Anthony's hospital helping her celebrate her 85th anniversary has been a patient there for the past two years.

The teachers from St. Mary's academy will be attending the archdiocesan Catholic teachers' convention at Omaha on Friday. No classes at the academy will convene on that date.

AMELIA—Mr. and Mrs. John Jones, who were residents here many years ago, were calling on friends recently. They now live in California.

Winners at Delta Dick held last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Edward M. Gallagher were Mrs. H. J. Lohaus and Evelyn Stannard.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Hartigan of Norfolk spent the weekend visiting relatives in Inman.

spending a week with his mother, Mrs. John Wunner, in Ewing and with her mother, Mrs. Bertha Wegner, at Orchard. Mr. and Mrs. John Shiffbauer jr., and son of Norfolk were weekend guests at the home of his sister, Mrs. William Hobbs. A recent guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kropp was her aunt, Mrs. Catherine Adenhaus.

The Future Homemakers of America, Ewing chapter, enjoyed a bike hike and a picnic supper along the Elkhorn river near here Tuesday, October 2. The new members, Coralee Schmisser, Betty Schindler, Ann Rotherham and Lois Kaczor, were initiated. Miss Alice Hamilton, their advisor, accompanied them. ported the day's work as being very satisfactory.

AMELIA—The young adult group of the Methodist church met Friday evening, October 5 at the church annex. Mr. and Mrs. George Fullerton were host and hostess to a pot luck supper. Mrs. Harry Meyers had charge of the devotionals, and Mrs. George Fullerton sponsored the recreation.

CHAMBERS — Mrs. G. H. Grimes spent Saturday, October 6, with her mother, Mrs. Lois Adair, birthday anniversary. Mrs. Adams, at St. Anthony's hospital helping her celebrate her 85th anniversary has been a patient there for the past two years.

The teachers from St. Mary's academy will be attending the archdiocesan Catholic teachers' convention at Omaha on Friday. No classes at the academy will convene on that date.

AMELIA—Mr. and Mrs. John Jones, who were residents here many years ago, were calling on friends recently. They now live in California.

Winners at Delta Dick held last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Edward M. Gallagher were Mrs. H. J. Lohaus and Evelyn Stannard.