Maxine Jehorek, Robert J. Connelly Exchange Vows

LYNCH—At Assumption Blessed Virgin Mary Catholic church here on Saturday, October 6 Miss Maxine Jehorek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Jehorek of Lynch, became the bride of Robert J. Connelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Connelly of Lindsay.

Rev. Charles Kamber officiated in the 10 a. m. double-ring ceremony.

The bridal gown of chastity lace over satin was fashioned with an elongated bodice, with a scoop neck outlined with seed pearls, and long sleeves. The puffed skirt of the lace repeated the seed pearl motif at the hipline, coming to a point in the back, ending in a chapel train. Her fingertip veil of imported illusion was caught by a pointed crown of pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a cascading bouquet of white pom poms and carnations.

Marianne Connelly, maid-of-honor, was gowned in gold brocade satin with matching half hat and mitts. Lou Shieffer, and Miriam Nemece, bridesmaids, wore dresses identical to the maid-of-honor in shades of brown and green. They carried bouquets of bronze and yellow pom poms.

Flower girls were Grace and Brenda Kube. They were dressed in floor-length dresses of yellow and green with matching neapieces.

Martin Jehorek, Jr., was best man and Kenny Cramer and Joe Connelly were ushers. They wore white dinner jackets and dark trousers.

At noon a dinner for 150 relatives and friends was served at the American Legion hall.

The bride was graduated from Lynch high school in 1951, and has since been employed as a beauty operator in Omaha.

The bridegroom was graduated from Holy Family high school in Lynch in 1949 and since his discharge from the air force has been attending the University of Nebraska.

The couple will live in Lincoln.
