Merchants Ready for Dollar Days Throngs

Catherine Pribil

Lifelong Resident; Funeral Friday

Mrs. Catherine F. Pribil, 71, widow of the late Jacob Pribil, died at 5:45 a.m., Wednesday, October 17, shortly after arrival in St. Anthony's hospital.

She was stricken unexpectedly with a heart attack.

Funeral services will be conducted at 9 a.m., Friday, October 19, at St. Patrick's Catholic church. Rev. Thomas Hitch will officiate and burial will be in Calvary cemetery.

Rosary will be held at 7:30 o'-clock tonight (Thursday) in Biglin's chapel.

The late Mrs. Pribil, whose maiden name was Catherine Frances O'Donnell, was born July 19, 1885, in the Stafford community southeast of Inman. Her parents were natives of

On May 25, 1909, she married Jacob Pribil at Stafford. They became the parents of six chil-cember 30, 1952. She had been living on her home place with her son, Harold, located 10 miles southeast of O'-She was a member of St. Pat-

The late Mrs. Pribil always was active in community affairs and resided on the same farm 48

Survivors include: Sons-John Shoemaker of O'Neill and Mrs. Ralph (Loretta) Tomlinson of in the matter of the estate of Lot- cause of technical advances. West Point; 19 grandchildren; tie Thompson involving heirs. brothers - James and John O'-Donnell, both of Omaha; sister-Mamie O'Donnell of Omaha.

Achievement Day Next Wednesday

American Legion hall in O'Neill. of O'Neill. This is one day earlier than had The hay was being moved continued. been previously announced.

Charter members of clubs or- North Western railroad. ganized 25 years—or more—ago will be recognized, also former Allyn of Lynch, Boyd council fire got away from him. chairman, and Miss Ethel Sexton, district supervisor of home extension work.

There will be a covered dish luncheon at noon.

Donohoe Memorial Service in Omaha

Memorial serivces for the late hoe of Omaha, who died earlier this year, were conducted Tuesday at the postoffice building in Omaha. Judge Donohoe was a native of O'Neill. Julius D. Cronin, O'Neill at- tion.

Washingtonian Arrives for Extended Visit-

Mrs. Russell Yusten has re- schools now in the state. tain regions.

Mrs. Nina Henning of Seattle accompanied her to O'Neill. She Carol Peters Feted also will visit Atkinson, Long on First Communion-Pine, Chadron and points in California before returning to Seat- the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. tle in February. Mrs. Henning Peter. The occasion was Carol folk and Winner via Neligh and formerly lived in Long Pine and has been in the Northwest 18

Frontier for printing!

During O'NEILL DOLLAR DAYS

Thurs. - Fri. - Sat. October 18-19-20

O'Neill merchants have gone all-out to offe ra remarkable variety of dollar day bargains this weekend-today (Thursday) through Friday and Sat-

These will be exciting days with savings galore in every store. Virtually every store has multiple dollar day offerings. Cooperating merchants made special purchases weeks ago in preparation for this October sales event. Their planning and their careful buying add up to savings for you! The pages of The Frontier are jam-packed this issue with dollar day bargains in addition to the general advertising. It'll pay shoppers to drive a hundred miles to cash in on dollar day savings. Study the . see for yourself!

Summers Accident to Be Heard warded by registered mail to 40 U.S. Sen. Roman Hruska, who prospective jurors for the fall is not seeking reelection this year dren.

One daughter, Eileen, preceded her in death. Mr. Pribil died December 30, 1952.

term of the Holt county district but is stumping for the Eisenhower-Nixon and Governor Anderson tickets, charged that Additional county district but is stumping for the Eisenhower-Nixon and Governor Anderson tickets, charged that Additional county district but is stumping for the Eisenhower-Nixon and Governor Anderson tickets, charged that Additional county district but is stumping for the Eisenhower-Nixon and Governor Anderson tickets, charged that Additional county district but is stumping for the Eisenhower-Nixon and Governor Anderson tickets, charged that Additional county district county A jury will be impaneled to lai Stevenson's proposal for aban-

John Meier of Creighton is the and the Royal Neighbors of Amically injured.

The state is pressing criminal were abandoned and at some date P., Frelent and Harold, all of O'Neill; daughters — Mrs. Leona proceedings against Melvin Hood it was essential to schedule a hurry-up test and, perhaps, a hog theft.

Flames Destroy Tractor, 11 Stacks to win the Korean war victory was within grasp.

for home extension clubs in stacks of hay were destroyed by who re Holt county will be held Wed-nesday, October 24, at the Schaffer ranch, 1½ miles south tion and a tenacious foe of the

from the field to the stack yard "Five years later the same new The theme for this year's ex- when the fire started about 3:30 deal party is asking the Ameri-

O'Neill firemen were harassed "Eisenhower is the world's Highlights of educational pro- during the weekend by grass greatest single contributor to a grams through 25 or more years fires. Two on Saturday were secure and enduring peace. Even of home extension clubs will be blamed on sparks from diesel lo-featured. blamed on sparks from diesel lo-his enemies respect him as such. "New dealers today are pausing been received during the week. voters will recognize the false and present officers of the Holt council. Mrs. E. A. Bouska of Stuart, county vice-chairman, will preside.

Guests will include Mrs. Don.

Stuart of the Holt council is the owner of an idle residence, used as a tool shed, which was damaged Sunday morning by fire. Mr. Devall of the day morning by fire. Mr. Devall was having off grass when the vicin bears will recognize the false leadership and the reckless proposals of Stevenson and his group and will return Ike and Vice-President Richard Nixon to the Guests will include Mrs. Don was burning off grass when the white house."

Teachers Discuss K-12 Proposition of-ceremonies.

elected Supt. E. Peterson of Stu- the night at Valentine. ort as president; Miss Mary Cou- Others in the group were: Federal Judge James A. Dono- egate to the NSEA convention, or; Ralph Hill of Hebron, state torney, was among the members Other topics included the K-12 of the Nebraska Bar association district organization plan with a taking part.

Examiner to Hold "target date" of 1960 when enthusiasts hope the 5,000 school districts in Nebraska will be reduced to 424—the number of high be designated.'

English Braille.

Peter's first communion day. There were 64 present for a pienic dinner at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Manson spent Friday in Elgin visiting Mrs. Manson's mother, Mrs. Sidney Anderson.

Art Spittler of Ewing visited at the Jerome Spittler home on

Mrs. Neilsen based her meditation on I Kings 17.6: "The ra-and flesh in the morning, and the day.

CHAMBERS WOMAN . . .

CHAMBERS - Mrs. Louis and he drank of the brook."

The Upper Room has a world the animal was killed, skinned, bread and flesh in the evening; Because of the wide readership the date of Thursday, November lone buffalo standing on the prai- tional guide.

North-Central Nebraska's BIGGEST Newspaper

Volume 76.—Number 25

O'Neill, Holt County, Nebraska, October 18, 1956.

PAGES

Dies After

Long Illness

Rites at St. John's:

Longtime Resident

of Deloit Locality

EWING-Gottlieb A. Bauer, 73, died at 10 a.m., Friday, October 12, at his home south of Ewing.

He had been ill since last Decem-

Funeral services were conducted at St. John's Catholic church south of here, on Monday, October 15, with Rev. Jacob Bauer, a nephew, officiating in the requiem high mass. Rev. Anthony

Mass servers were Ronnie

Pallbearers were Carl Thiele,

Sehi, Ferdinand Hupp, sr., and

Burial was in St. John's cem-

The late Mr. Bauer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Bauer, was born February 18, 1883, at Scribner. At the age of sevem

he moved to a place on Cache

He was united in marriage with

Angela Vandersnick on October

27, 1909. Two years later they moved to the Deloit community where he spent the remainder of vester of Clearwater; daughter-ters-Anna and Theresa, both of Relatives from a distance attending the funeral included:

his life.

creek where he grew to man-

EIGHTEEN

Seven Cents.

Hruska Hits Stevenson's Bomb Plan

Senator Sparks GOP Street Corner Rally Here Tuesday Noon

for Fall Term the second day in the sprawling Fourth district, Tuesday was greeted in the heart of O'Neill by the combined O'Neill high school-St. Mary's academy band school-St. Mary's academy band The republican caravan, on and by an estimated 250 persons during a noon hour street gathering. It was a shirtsleeve gath-Summonses have been for- ering in 80-degree temperatures.

hear at least three actions—two donment of atomic bomb tests civil and one criminal — on the is a "vulnerable and reckless attitude.'

"Governor Stevenson has no plaintiff in an action against comprehension of the plans and suit is an outgrowth of a two-car test and the importance of the accident on a county road north of Page in which Mr. Summers' daughter, Miss Thelma, was crit
"We would be in a sad predicament," Hruska declared, "if tests year or 18 months would be need-A civil action to be heard is ea to prepare for such a test be-"The Stevenson attitude is the same as President Truman's when the then president humiliated General MacArthur by deto win the Korean war when "The recall of MacArthur was The annual fall achievement A catepillar tractor and 11 ing to the American people, a 'reckless deed' and was 'shock-

The theme for this year's exhibits by the clubs is "Through the Years."

A program has been arranged and the public is welcome to at-

North Western railroad.

A half-dozen fire calls have the condfident belief the

Other speakers were Gov. Victor Anderson and Rep. A. L. Miller, both seeking reelection. R. E. ("Dick") Spelts of Grand Island, state GOP chairman, was master-al of Stuart, secretary-treasurer; Dwight Burney of Hartington, tracting large crowds. Supt. L. A. Carter of Ewing, del- candidate for lieutenant-governand Princ. Willard Solfermoser of treasurer; Clarence Beck of O'Neill, alternate delegate.

They listened to a discussion of the overload truck fine proposal treasurer; Clarence Beth State and State a but did not take a formal posi- Charles Thone. (Mr. Thone is Senator Hruska's secretary.)

a hearing at 9:30 a.m., Wednesday, October 24, at the courthouse ing at the Mrs. Clarence Donohoe Survivors include: Son-Gilbert held by Rapid Transit Lines. Relatives gathered Sunday at Larson proposes to operate into the path of the other. There through buses daily between Nor- were no personal injuries. O'Neill.

WEATHER SUMMARY

		Hi	Lo
October	11	87	48
October	12	87	53
October	13	82	46
October	14	76	33
October	15	81	41
October	16	86	44
October	17	84	34

Writes Upper Room Meditation

(Pearl) Nielsen of Chambers is She tells the story of a small Room, it is considered a high the author of the meditation being used through the readership of the Upper Room publication on the Upper Room publication on rie, concluding by saying: "Soon circulation of over three million cut up and cooked. As is written day from a two-months' vacation.

copies. It is published in 32 edi- that the ravens brought bread and She visited in Buffalo, N.Y., with tions including 27 languages and flesh to Elijah, could it not also friends. She had spent the last

The meditation is concluded to a hungry settlement?"

John G. Schneider Land Is Sold

auctioneer-real estate broker, announced this week the 1,660-acre The group moved westward John Johnson ranch, adjoining the ATKINSON-John G. Schnei- ed for awards in the Sioux City The Holt County Town Teachfrom here, stopping at Atkinson, ers association, in session here, Bassett and Ainsworth, spending and the Lynn Doty farm-ranch, tober 11, in Atkinson Memorial gram, have been declared Nenorth of Atkinson near the Nio- hospital. He had been ill about braska winners in the competibrara, were sold at auctions at- two years.

chased by Wayne Cuatt of Bur- tober 13, in St. Joseph's Catholic lications, and Rex Voils of the well for $30 per acre on Friday. church. Burial was at St. Helena, Sioux City Stockyards Co., Wed-25 per acre.

Johnson, Doty

COW IS KILLED

A cow was killed Friday morn- died in 1950. road. One truck forced the cow

Take Trip-

Mr. and Mrs. George Mott, sr., departed Thursday, October 4, on a trip. They visited Mr. Mott's sister, Miss Julia Mott, Mr. and Mrs.Walter Bramon and family and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Doty at Mitchell, S.D. Miss Mott accompanied them to Fenton, Ia., where they visited Mrs. Mary Hanson and other relatives. They also be said a buffalo brought flesh two weeks in Kansas City with stopped in Boone, Ia.

and popularity of the Upper

Mrs. Guy Young returned Fri-

her daughter, Mrs. Walter Huston, Mr. Huston and family

Governor Anderson solicited friendship (not votes) from these St. Mary's academy lassies: Left-to-right-Marie Boyle (arm raised), Joanne Soukup (glasses), Mary Graham, Teresa Boyle, Governor Anderson, Marie Ritz (glasses, at Mr. Anderson's left shoulder), Carlene Schoenle (glasses), Mary Ann Hoffman (the governor has his arm around her), Betty Krobot (glasses) and El-

Senator Hruska chats with Miss Marlene Gaskill, majorette of tre Municipal band, and Director Duane Miller during an interlude in connection with Tuesday's visit of the Nebraska republican caravan.-The Frontier Photo.

Col. Ed Thorin, O'Neill Burial at St. Helena Vincent Thiele of Ewing, Mer-

The Johnson ranch was purducted at 9:30 a.m., Saturday, Oc. Mare Cox, farm editor of the Sioux City Journal-Tribune pub-and he came to Holt county in graphic equipment for the Holt Angus cows at the M. A. Ben- 1884. He farmed west of Atkin- soil conservation district. ton sale, north of Burwell, son for many years, retiring Formal recognition will be about 10 years ago.

He was married to Emma Kunz of Stuart on October 6, 1896. She turned from a month's visit with "This does not mean all rural pertaining to the application of place on U.S. highway 281 north Schneider of Atkinson; daughters relatives in Kelso and Seattle, schools would be closed," a Fred Larson, jr., of Winner, S.D., of here. A northbound Gillette -Sr. M. Gaudiasa, OSF, of Sny-Wash, and at Portland, Ore. It spokesman said, "but implies that to operate a bus between Norfolk Dairy truck, driven by Robert Er- der, Mrs. Joe (Catherine) Bruewas her first visit to the moun- large administrative units would and the South Dakota line via win of O'Neill, and a southbound ning and Mrs. S. C. (Helen) truck owned and driven by Ray- Bruening, both of St. Helena, and Neligh and O'Neill.

Larson seeks to acquire the O'Neill - Norfolk rights presently

Neligh and O'Neill.

Larson seeks to acquire the O'Neill - Norfolk rights presently

Several others—headed across the several others—headed across the great-grandchildren.

Holt Entries Are State Winners

wyn French, jr., of Page and Dave Keidel of Stuart, nominat-

Marc Cox, farm editor of the

The win will provide one hun-

L. VanVoorhis, Mrs. A. B. Hubard and Mrs. Steve Shavlik of

Return from East-Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Burgess returned Tuesday from their made at a banquet in Sioux City

The Merrymix club convened ith Mrs. Paul Shierk Tuesday fternoon. Guests were Mrs. K. Chambers. High score was won by Mrs. Van Voorhis.

ing day for her .- The Frontier vens brought him (Elijah) bread with a prayer and a thought for Mrs. Minnie Higgins was a Mrs. Smith. Mrs. Mossman, Mrs. Rouse . . . each has been a member of the Inman Methodist Sunday supper guests of Mrs.

Arthur Givens Will Head Dimes March G. A. Bauer

Frank Beelaert of Page, chairnan of the Holt county chapter, National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, has announced the appointment of Arthur Givens of Stuart as march of dimes director for 1957.

Mr. Givens will organize the committees for the 1957 drive in lolt county. Mr. Beelaert says that polio shots are available for everyone,

Inman Methodists Have Big Day

75th Anniversary Is Observed

INMAN—It was an all-day celebration here Sunday, October 14, as the Methodist church marked its 75th anniversary.

Bishop H. Bascom Watts. Ne- Bauer and Ronnie Kallhoff, two braska area head of the Metho- grandsons, and Lyle Bartak, Gene dist church, delivered the anni- Bartak and Richard Minarik, versary sermon. He was introducted by Dr. J. LaVerne Jay of O-Pallbearers were Neill, northeast district superin- John Sehi, Rudy Funk, William Fifty - year members honored Leo Funk.

were Mrs. Blanche Rouse, Mr. and Mrs. George Colman, Mrs. etery southwest of Ewing. Leo Mossman and Mrs. Anna Smith. One was absent: Mrs. Mrs. Smith, whose maiden name was Trowbridge, came to the locality before she was 20years-old and joined the church 53 years ago. Mrs. Mossman's maiden name was Bittner. She has belonged to the Inman congregation since she was four-years-old-a matter of 56 years. Mrs. Rouse's parents were They became the parents of homesteaders in the locality be- four sons and one daughter. fore they were married. Her He was preceded in death by maiden name was Blanche Keyes. his oldest son, Alfred; his par-Her people cam to Inman before ents and one grandson, Louis. the extension of the railroad west | Survivors include: Widow from Neligh in 1881. Her mother Angela; sons-Leonard of Hoopcame to the Hart postoffice in a er, Gerald of Pierre, S.D., Syl-stagecoach. Oldest persons present were Mrs. Otto (Marie) Kallhoff of Mrs. Eva Murten of Grand Island, Clearwater; 23 grandchildren; widow of a former pastor, and brother—Jacob of Spalding; siswidow of a former pastor, and

Mrs. Louise Heiss of Page. Mrs. Murten was 79-yearsold earlier this month. Mrs. Heiss is a former school teach-

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Bauer and family of Hooper; Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Bauer and family of Rev. Lisle Mewmaw, present Pierre, S.D.; Mr. and Mrs. Evo pastor, reported that 245 have Vandersnick of Park City, Mont.; pined the congregation since the Mrs. Larry Garoutte of Nye, oth anniversary celebration in Mont.; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bor-He has been pastor since land of Absorokee, Mont.; Jake 1953 and has received 59 into Bauer and son, Vincent, Mr. and membership. Present membership Mrs. Lawrence Bauer, Mr. and

Mrs. Richard Bauer, all of Spald-Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kaputska of Broken Bow; Geraldine Bauer of Norfolk; Mrs. Ed Psotta of Pilger; Mrs. C. Rotherham and son of St. dward; Mrs. Harold Gragart of Creighton; Mr. and Mrs. Frank lements, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Baelman and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Bazelman, all of O'Neill. Cards Play Bonesteel; Eagles Have Open Date-The St. Mary's academy Cardals will entertain the Bonesteel S.D.) high school eight-man grid am in Carney park tonight Thursday). Meanwhile, the O'Neill Eagles re idle this week. Next Wednesiay, October 24, the Cards will ost the Butte team in a Niobrara alley conference game here, and he Eagles will travel to Neligh

Auction Calendar Mrs. Murten . . . homecomacks were served Monday-pancake day-in Creighton.

CREIGHTON-Over 3,000 flap-face the strong Warriors.

3,000 'JACKS SERVED

Wednesday, October 24: Mr. and Mrs. John Berger, who live on Opportunity road northeast of O'Neill, will offer their 1,600acre ranch, 140 head of Hereford attle, other personal property; Col. Ed Thorin of O'Neill, tioneer-real estate broker; Ernie Weller of Atkinson, autioneer; First National bank of O'Neill, clerk. (Details in this issue.) Wednesday, October 31: H. A. and Robert E. Van Horn, annual Hereford sale, 45 registered bulls, 15 registered females, southeast of O'Neill; Charles Corkle of Norfolk, auctioneer; First National Bank of O'Neill, clerk. (Details in subsequent is-

Friday, October 26: Glenn and Dorothy Lorenz, closeout, 20 miles south of O'Neill, 1 mile east, 1/2mile south; Angus and dairy cattle, machinery, household goods; Col. Ed Thorin of O'Neill, auctioneer; Carl Lorenz, clerk. (Details in this issue.)

Friday, November 9: Joseph Paul Shanner, residing 1/2-mile north of Page, one mile west, % mile north, selling improved 80acre farm, purebred Guernsey dairy herd, farm machinery, feed and grain; Col. Wallace O'Connell of O'Neill and Col. Buy Wanser Page, auctioneers; Col. Verne Reynoldson of O'Neill, real estate broker; First National bank of O'Neill, clerk. (Details in sub-