47-Pound Turtle Headed for Stew

Norman Uhl and Bert ("Gabby") Urban landed this 47-pound snapping turtle Monday at Ft. Randall. They exhibited the big fellow, estimated to be about 20-years-old, in the business district. The specimen stirred memories of the day the late Dr. H. L. Bennett brought in a 54-pound turtle and went for a ride standing on the turtle's shell.—The Frontier Photo.

Series of Meetings Start at Ewing

EWING—Lowell Lund, minister of the Church of Christ, announces there will be a two-week series of evangelistic meetings to be held in the Church of Christ here starting Sunday night, October 21. Services begin at 8 o'clock every night except Saturday nights, through November 4.

Don Beckenhauer, minister of the Clearwater Church of Christ, will be the evangelist. General topic of the meetings is "Bible Answers to Popular Questions." Each night a different question will be answered. Many special numbers including vocal quartets and fluorescent chalk art will be provided by students for Nebraska Christian college in Norfolk throughout the meeting. The public is invited.

Council Ponders Parking Problem

At a meeting of the city council last week, the possibilities of changing back to diagonal parking was discussed. Diagonal parking was abandoned about a year ago in favor of parallel parking.

The council voted to make an offer to Dr. H. D. Gildersleeve and Miss Bernadette Brennan for the purchase of 30 feet off their real estate on First street for street-widening between John and Adams streets. Duane Miller, O'Neill band instructor, asked the council for financial aid in purchasing new band instruments.

Further plans for airport improvement, including a new administration building, were discussed.
