Pace Slow Only for Young

By BLANCHE SPANN PEASE, Homemaking Editor

November! Honestly will you tell me where the weeks and months have gone? Only yesterday we were in the midst of summer and canning. Now it won't be long before the Christmas holidays will be breathing down our necks. Tempus has such an alarming way of fugiting when you get older. It's only when you're young that time slow and leisurely.

Top your next macaroni and cheese casserole with this herb-flavored crumb mixture. Combine one-third cup buttered bread crumbs, a half teaspoon tarragon leaves and one-eighth teaspoon oregano. Sprinkle over top of the casserole before baking.

November and this six-layer dinner were simply made for each other. And it smells so good when its cooking. The recipe is from the Cow Belles book on beef cookery.

SIX-LAYER DINNER
First layer—Sliced potatoes to cover bottom of baking dish. Second layer—3/4 cup uncooked rice poured over potatoes. Third layer—Two-pounds of ground beef. First brown in skillet and spread on top of rice. Fourth layer—3 good sized onions, cut up fine. Fifth layer—Two green peppers, chopped fine. Sixth layer—One large can of tomatoes poured over all. Season as desired. Bake from 1 1/2 to 2 hours in a slow oven. Serves at least six people.

Prepare savory noodles to serve with budget wise short ribs. About 20 minutes before the ribs are done, melt two tablespoons butter or margarine in a sauce pan that has a cover. Stir in one tablespoon poppy seeds and cook gently about three minutes. Pour in 1 1/4 cups condensed consommé (10 1/2 ounce can) and 3/4 cup water. Heat to boiling. Add six ounces broad noodles and boil rapidly, stirring constantly for two minutes. Cover, remove from heat and let stand 10 minutes. Spoon onto serving plate with ribs. Makes four servings.

Some how or other waffles and Sunday night suppers seem to go hand in hand. Next time you're in the mood for trying a new waffle recipe, try this one. How about next Sunday night.

BUTTERMILK WAFFLES
Sift together: Two cups sifted all purpose flour, 1 1/3 teaspoons baking powder, 1/4 teaspoon soda, 1 tablespoon sugar, 1/2 teaspoon salt. Beat Two egg yolks, 3/4 cups buttermilk, six tablespoons melted butter together. Combine with dry ingredients. Fold in beaten egg whites. Bake as usual.

Next time you make scalloped potatoes, use crushed cracker crumbs for a topping. Sprinkle the topping with paprika. You'll love the crusty, inviting look of them and they'll taste just as good! Still have some fall painting to do? Rub vaseline on the hands before painting a painting job. The paint can be washed off with the vaseline and the vaseline protects your hands, leaving them smooth and soft.

Wins Subscription—Clearwater Reader
Mrs. Ray Conard of Clearwater wins our three months subscription prize today.

Clearwater, Nebr.

Dear Mrs. Pease:
I see you are asking for letters and recipes and I could use the paper for three months. I have never written you before. I live on a farm. We have one married daughter and a grandson.

It has been a busy year and now Summer is just about over. I had a nice garden and I put many chickens in the freezer for the winter. With just the two of us, it doesn't take too much.

Enclosed is a good recipe and also some good rules.
Plant three rows of P's — patience, perseverance and purity
Plant three rows squash — squash gossip, squash criticism, squash difference.

Plant three rows of lettuce — let us be faithful, let us be unselfish and true and obey rules, let us love one another.

SOUR CREAM DEVILS FOOD
1/3 cup cocoa, 1 1/2 cups sugar, 1 cup water, 2 eggs, 1 cup thick sour cream, 1 teaspoon soda, 2 cups cake flour, little salt, 1 teaspoon vanilla.

Cook together cocoa, 1/2 cup sugar and water. Bring to boil and let boil two minutes. Set aside to cool but it needn't be cold for the cake. Beat egg yolks well and add one cup sugar to sour cream. Add soda to the cream before adding to the sugar, and other mixture. Sift together flour and salt and add to first mixture. Lastly add beaten egg whites and fold in last. Bake in a greased layer pan at 350 F. for about 35 minutes.
