Turay-Pritchett Nuptials Read

St. Patrick's Catholic church was the scene Saturday of the wedding of Miss Rose Mary Turay, daughter of Mrs. Frank Turay and Joe E. Pritchett. Very Rev. Timothy O'Sullivan officiated at the 7:45 a.m. nuptial mass. Music was by St. Mary's choir.

The bride appeared in a gown of chantilly lace and imported sheer tulle with fitted bodice. The long lace sleeves formed the traditional bridal points at the wrists. The voluminous skirt had alternating panels of lace and accordion pleated tulle over net and snow white satin. She carried a bouquet of pink and white feathered carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pritchett, a brother and sister-in-law of the bridegroom, were attendants. Acolytes were Laverne and Wayne Pritchett, nephews of the bridegroom.

A reception was held at the bridegroom's home for the immediate relatives of both families.

A three-tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom adorned the table. The bride's mother, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Morgan and Nate Pritchett prepared the dinner. Assisting hostesses were the Mesdames A. G. Pritchett and Charles Pritchett. The cake was cut by Mrs. Herman Orsborn. The evening's entertainment was climaxed with dancing. A. G. Pritchett furnished the music.

After a short trip, the couple will make their home on the bridegroom's farm northeast of O'Neill.
