Clowns Give Baack a Hoist

City School Supt. M. J. Baack, officiating in Monday night's exhibition basketball game—the season's first cage showing here—went along with the Harlem Clowns for this bucket. The Clowns grabbed Baack during the interlude of the tilt between the company D "tankers" of the national guards and the Harlem crew. The colored fellows rolled Baack's pantlegs to the knees at the free throw lane and gave him the hoist. An estimated 600 persons saw the game, handily won by the Clowns, 51-50, despite the score. Their antics delighted the audience.—The Frontier Photo.

Oliver Nelson, Bristow; Melvin Jacoby, Spencer.

Ewing News

Merton Dierks went to Lincoln Friday to attend the homecoming game after which he went to Salina, Kans. He returned to Ewing Monday, accompanied by his grandfather, M. H. Dierks, who had been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Wilda Carr at Holdrege. Mr. Dierks also spent some time at North Platte and Ogallala with his daughters, Mrs. Viola Maupin and Mrs. Walter Tressler and family during the six weeks he has been gone.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Lee returned home Thursday from Dixon where they were guests at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Curly Sanders, and family. Mrs. Lee assisted in the care of their baby, who is ill with bronchitis. He is improving.

Mrs. Millie Meyers and Mrs. Ronald Shale of Stuart visited Miss Marybelle O'Conner Friday.
