

Meet with State
Leader at Norfolk

Mrs. Melvin Ruzicka went to Pierce on Wednesday evening, November 7, where she was the houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. William Cox. On Thursday, Mrs. Ruzicka and Mrs. Cox drove to Lincoln where they attended a luncheon and pourvoir meeting of the Eight and Forty department of Nebraska with Mrs. Mildred Larson of Hastings, chapeau departmental, presiding. Mrs. Ruzicka represented Madison county salon 410 as chapeau and area E as demi-chapeau.

Mrs. Cox currently is serving as pourvoir member national for the department of Nebraska. The regular November Marche of Madison County 410, Eight and Forty was held last Thursday evening in the Legion home at Norfolk with Mrs. Melvin Ruzicka, le petit chapeau, presiding. Twenty-two chapeaus from Pierce, Norfolk, Stanton and O'Neill attended the business session which followed a 7 o'clock dessert with Mesdames Anna Walker, Mary Gillespie, Audrey Slack and Adele Peterson as hostesses.

Announcement of a new program which has been added to the work of the Eight and Forty is the building of a nurse scholarship fund for post-graduate work in care and treatment of tubercular patients. The primary program of the Eight and Forty is the care and treatment of tuberculosis in children.

Mrs. Bernice Bussman, child welfare chairman, was appointed to represent the salon at the national area D child welfare conference of the American Legion and auxiliary, which will be held in Omaha, November 30 and December 1.

The salon voted to send gifts to tubercular children patients at the Kearney, Nebraska hospital and plans were announced for the annual Christmas party which will be held on December 6 at Ye Olde Tavern in Norfolk.

Mrs. Mildred Larson, chapeau departmental, and Mrs. Lillian Gaines, la-secretaire-cassiere departmental, of Hastings, have been invited to be guests of the salon at the Christmas march and party.

Partners from O'Neill attending the marche in addition to Mrs. Ruzicka, were Mrs. Robert Lowery, Mrs. Virgil Laursen and Mrs. John Davidson.

Inman Sophomores Present Comedy

INMAN—The sophomores at the Inman high school presented a play, "Oil Well and Wedding Bells", a one-act comedy, on Friday evening, November 9.

Between the scenes songs were sung by a boys quartet and girls trio.

The band entertained after the play. Lunches of homemade ice cream, cake and coffee were sold. A door prize was given.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shierk visited relatives in Wagoner, S. D., Monday.

2 Church Groups Meet Sunday Eve

EWING—The Upper Room Society and the Methodist Mens club met Sunday evening at the parlors of the Ewing Methodist church. "Thanksgiving" was the theme of the devotional period conducted by Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Davis and Marie.

After routine business was finished, a Christmas party was planned for the December meeting for both groups. There will be a 6:30 o'clock dinner of oyster stew, sandwiches, pie and coffee. Each family is asked to invite a family, which might be prospective members. The entertainment will also be some game or stunt presented by each family who attend.

Since the last meeting of the Methodist Men, the church yard has been fenced and a large area east of the entrance of the church cemented, giving considerable width to the sidewalk there. Games were played for recreation followed by refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Tondack and family were Sunday dinner guests at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Ben Taylor at Tilden.

Other Ewing News

Mr. and Mrs. Curly Sanders and family of Dixon were weekend guests at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Art Sanders and family.

Mrs. Bernice Harlan of Tilden spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. Caroline Sanders. Other guests at the Sanders home were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Bergstrom and children of Chambers.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Davis transacted business in Omaha on Thursday and Friday. While they were gone, their daughter, Marie, was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Tuttle.

The Jephthah chapter, 85, Order of the Eastern Star, held its regular meeting Tuesday evening, November 6, at the lodge room. Mrs. Waldo Davis and Mrs. Harriet Welke, served refreshments.
