Betty Mae Harmon
November Bride
in Church Rites

Before an altar of gold and bronze chrysanthemums, Miss Betty Mae Harmon of Omaha and Richard Dean Kaup, also of Omaha, were united in marriage Saturday, November 24, at a 10 a.m. ceremony at St. Boniface Catholic church in Stuart. Rev. A. J. Paschang officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Harmon of Scottsbluff, formerly of O'Neill. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kaup jr., of Stuart.

Miss Myrna Kaup of Omaha, the bridegroom's sister, was maid-of-honor. Miss Ardyce Alton of Omaha was bridesmaid.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in a pink original floor-length gown of "I Do" taffeta, fashioned in princess style with a stand-up collar trimmed with appliques of Alencon lace encrusted with seed pearls and long pointed sleeves. The full skirt was caught below the hip line with bias folds accented with appliques of the Alencon lace and seed pearl trim. Her fingertip veil of imported illusion fell from a Juliet cap of embroidered net encrusted with seed pearls.

The maid of honor appeared in a gold crystal-embroidered street length dress with a v-neckline, three-quarter length sleeves and gathered skirt with bow in back. The bridesmaid wore a bronze crystal-embroidered gown identical as the maid-of-honor. They both carried gold and bronze colonial bouquets of chrysanthemums.

Robert Tielke of Stuart was bestman. Ushers were Don Godel of Scottsbluff, a brother-in-law of the bride, and Richard Hytrek of Chicago, Ill. Ivo Shald of Stuart, a cousin of the bridegroom, was groomsmen. The men wore dark blue tuxedos. A dinner for 25 was given at Slats by the bride's parents.

Mrs. Don Godel, sister of the bride, had charge of the guest book. The Misses Marilyn Lindberg, Lavonne Schmadern of Omaha and Norma Timmerman had charge of the gifts.

Mrs. Kaup is a graduate of O'Neill high school and is employed by Mutual of Omaha. Mr. Kaup, a graduate of Stuart high school, is employed by the Burlington railroad.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will be at home in Omaha.

Mary Faulhaber,
Paul Baker Wed

Miss Mary Faulhaber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Faulhaber, and Paul Baker of O'Neill, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Baker of Kearney, were married in Lincoln Tuesday, November 13. The couple is now at home at 730 E. Grant st., after a short trip to Lincoln, Omaha and Chicago, Ill.

They and the bride's parents were Thanksgiving day guests of Mr. Baker's parents in Kearney. Mrs. Baker is a graduate of St. Mary's academy and has been employed at the First National bank.

Mr. Baker graduated from Kearney State Teachers college. He was athletic coach and principal at Culbertson high school for two years; later was basketball coach at O'Neill high school for 2½ years, serving also as principal for 1½ years. Presently he is district sales representative for Continental Oil company.

Dr. Cook Assigned
8 Holt Precincts

In connection with the brucellosis test program, Dr. G. R. Cook of O'Neill has been assigned the following precincts in Holt county: Pleasant View, Emmet, Fairview, Wyoming, Chambers, Conley, Lake and McClure.

Dr. Cook suggests cattle owners in these townships contact his office to arrange convenient dates for vaccinations of all heifer calves between the ages of 4 and 12 months under the official Brucellosis program.

The authorities in charge of this program have also advised Doctor Cook will be assigned more townships in this area after the first of the year. Any owners not now in townships assigned to him may upon written request have their heifers vaccinated by the veterinarian of their choice.

CDA Entertains
at Card Party

Shirley Tromsness
Weds Inman Man

INMAN — Candelabras and baskets of chrysanthemums graced the altar of the Hope Lutheran church in Tacoma, Wash., Saturday evening, November 17, when a 7 o'clock ceremony united in marriage Miss Shirley Ann Louise Tromsness, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Oliver Tromsness, and Ronald Kenneth Coventry, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth A. Coventry of Inman. Rev. Vold church pastor performed the single ring ceremony.

A friend of the bride sang "Because" and "The Lords Prayer" during the ceremony. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a floor-length wedding gown of white slipper satin fashioned with a long train, fingertip veil and white satin slippers. She carried a white Bible with white orchid and matching streamers. Miss Mavis Tromsness, maid-of-honor, was attired in an aqua formal and carried pink carnations with streamers to match. Bridesmaids were the bride's sister, Mrs. Robert Dembroge, of San Luis Obispo, Calif., and Miss Jo Ann Zwigle. Mrs. Dembroge wore a floor-length blue formal and Miss Zwigle a cinnamon colored floor-length formal and both carried yellow chrysanthemums with matching streamers. Ring-bearer was the bride's brother, Kenneth Tromsness, who wore a white dinner jacket. Flower girl was Darlene Cross, brides little friend and neighbor. The bridegroom's bestman, Joseph Beagle, and ushers, Val Parks and Leon Vaden, all wore their airforce uniforms. All are located at Camp McCord, Wash.

The bride's mother wore a teal-blue dress with matching accessories and a white orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue crepe dress with matching accessories and an orchid corsage. A reception was held at the Tromsness home, 3229 L Street immediately following the ceremony. The bride's table was laid with a beautiful hand made table cloth, a wedding gift of her grandparents, and decorated with the wedding cake, candles and mums. Out of town guests from a distance attending the wedding included the bride's grandparents from Minneapolis, Minn., and the groom's mother, Mrs. Kenneth A. Coventry from Inman, and his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Pinkerman from Sutherlin, Ore.

The couple will make their home in Tacoma for the present.
