Mrs. William Spence Is Worthy Matron

EWING—Mrs. William Spence was elected worthy matron of the Eastern Star, here Tuesday evening, December 11, when the regular meeting was held at the lodge room.

Other officers elected were: Mr. Spence, worthy patron; Mrs. John Wood, associate matron, and Mr. Wood, associate patron; Mrs. Harriet Welke, secretary; Mrs. R. G. Rocky, treasurer; Mrs. Sam Burtwistle, conductress, and Miss Ina Bennett, associate conductress.

One candidate was initiated. The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Waido Davis, worthy matron.

Miss Vina Wood and Mrs. John Wood were hostesses. Luncheon was served. Tables were decorated in a holiday theme of red and green. Each member was presented a gift by the hostess.

Gifts Packed for Service Personnel

EWING—The Jolly Workers club met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Dewitt Hoke.

Mrs. Roland Horde conducted the business in the absence of Mrs. Robert McDaniels, president. Each member brought candy and cookies to be packed and sent to boys in service in the United States. At the November meeting boxes were packed for the boys overseas.

A cash donation was sent to the Nebraska Childrens Home in Omaha. For the hostess, the members embroidered tea towels. This was followed by games and an exchange of Christmas gifts. The group also sang Christmas carols. Mrs. Frank Schrad and Mrs. Joe Sturbaum were in charge of the entertainment. A potluck lunch was enjoyed.

P. S. FOR MRS. SANTA

The name of little Stella Mae Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Anderson, was inadvertently omitted from Mrs. Santa's interview last week. Little Stella Mae wanted "a bike and a Davy Crockett dolly."

Butte Livestock Market

AUCTION OF DEC. 12

We sold the top butcher hogs higher than most other markets for the day by 50c per cwt., bulk of the 650 head of hogs sold Dec. 12 brought 16.75 to 17.10 per cwt., (most good smooth sows sold as butchers) the pigs and light weight butcher hogs went back to the feed yards at 17c and 19c per cwt., over 100 head for hogs sold for $17.60 the extreme top being 17.65 per cwt.

The cattle run was mostly light stockers and feeders and the demand for these kind seems about steady, maybe quality is not quite as good, and condition of cattle is in favor of the buyer this time of year, so maybe we are getting a little more for them at the Butte Livestock Market than a few weeks back. We wish you strangers would come over and see for yourselves. You could tell your neighbor. Try and sell us on Wednesday.

We always have a little treat the Wednesday between the holidays.

Seasons Greeting to everyone from A. C. and Bill Hansen Butte, Nebr.
