

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce McElhaney ... to reside in Atkinson—O'Neill Photo Co.

Hazel Marie Johnson, Bruce T. McElhaney Exchange Vows

Miss Hazel Marie Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Johnson of Dorsey, was united in marriage to Bruce T. McElhaney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted McElhaney of O'Neill Sunday December 23, at 4 p.m. The double-ring ceremony was performed in First Presbyterian church by Rev. Joseph Walstead of Niobrara, assisted by Rev. J. Olen Kennell, pastor.

The altar was decorated with baskets of red carnations and white stock with silvered Christmas greens. The pews had white poinsettia bows with Christmas greens accented by tiny red berries.

The bride, escorted by her father, appeared in a floor length gown of imported rose pointe lace nylon tulle over taffeta with fashioned moulded bodice, featuring sariina neckline edged in lace medallions gathered with iridescent sequins. The long sleeves tapered to deep points. It was fastened at the back with tiny lace buttons. The bouffant skirt of nylon tulle with a wide panel of lace at the front and back was edged in medallion sequin trimmed lace. It featured a drop waist line.

Her imported illusion fingertip veil was held in place with a lace pillbox trimmed with tiny seed pearls and iridescent sequins. Her jewelry was pearl earrings, a gift of the bridegroom.

She carried a white orchid on a white prayer book with streamers sprinkled with variegated velvet leaves.

Candlelighters were Mrs. Frank Carroll of Lincoln and Mrs. Kenneth Marlatt of Wood Lake.

Mrs. Donald Calkins of Lincoln was maid-of-honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. John E. Dabl of Dorsey, Mrs. Robert Sholes and Miss Kay Eisenhauer of Chambers.

Little Miss Cindy Sholes was flowergirl and the ringbearer was Duane Richter of Dorsey. All the attendants, including the flowergirl, appeared in identical Christmas taffeta gowns featuring cumberbunds and bouffant skirts. The sariina necklines formed a vee in the back. They had white chiffon velvet headbands made with sweetheart lines, resembling crowns with tiny white Christmas corsages on one side. They carried matching muffs with corsages of white poms, little red berries and green leaves, matching the smaller headpiece corsages.

Little Miss Sholes carried a nosegay of red and white carnations. Master Richter wore a pom boutonniere in his navy suit. Gary Clifton of Orchard served as bestman. Attendants were Donald Calkins of Lincoln, John Brady of Dorsey and Ted Lindberg. Ushers were Gary Wilson of Redbird and John Bowen. They all wore navy suits and carnation boutonnieres.

Miss Marjorie McElhaney of Denver, Colo., sister of the bridegroom, was soloist, accompanied by Mrs. H. L. Lindberg. She sang "I Love Thee" and "Through The Years." John Bowen sang "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Johnson, the bride's mother, appeared in a mauve lace gown with matching feathered hat and gloves. She wore a white feathered carnation corsage.

Mrs. McElhaney, the bridegroom's mother appeared in a toast wool dress with beige accessories. Her corsage was of pink feathered carnations.

Mrs. Cora Clifton of Orchard, the bridegroom's grandmother, appeared in a royal blue crepe dress with a white carnation corsage.

A reception for 175 guests followed the ceremony in Fellowship hall. The reception was the first formal use of the new portion of the church.

Miss Jeannine McElhaney, a sister of the bridegroom, had charge of the guestbook. Those assisting at the reception were Mrs. Lee Brady, jr., hostess, Mrs. D. C. Schaffer, Mrs. D. D. DeBolt, Mrs. Christine Williams and Mrs. John Conard of Emmet, also Miss Priscilla Holsclaw and Miss Kathleen Brady.

Mrs. Don Peterson of Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo., Mrs. Darold Audiss of Butte, Mrs. Don Godel of Scottsbluff and Mrs. Ben Troshynski of Omaha had charge of the gifts.

Mrs. Dean VanEvery of Omaha, cut the three-tiered wedding cake, which was complimented by table decorations of Christmas colors, green and white.

The Misses Elizabeth Schaffer and Patricia DeBolt poured. After a short wedding trip, the couple will be at home in Atkinson. For her trip, Mrs. McElhaney wore a winter white brocaded faille dress with black accessories and an orchid corsage.

She was graduated from O'Neill high school and attended Doane college at Crete, where she was affiliated with Omega Psi Theta. She teaches third grade in the Atkinson public school.

Mr. McElhaney is a graduate of O'Neill high school and attended Wayne State Teachers college at Wayne. He served two years in the army including 1½ years spent in Germany.
