McNair-Bush Nuptial Rites Read at Omaha

Babutzke... home in May.

Mr. and Mrs. George McNair of O'Neill announce the marriage of their daughter, Leona, to Cabel Bush of St. Joseph, Mo. The nuptials took place Saturday, December 1 at the American Lutheran church in Omaha. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Dwain Olson.

The bride appeared in a street length, sleeveless, fitted white satin dress with embossed lace. Her corsage was of red roses. Her white hat had a small veil. She carried a white bible and wore pearls, both gifts of the bridegroom.

The bridesmaid, Miss Kaye Thaden of Omaha, wore a lavender dress similar to the brides. Her accessories were lavender and she wore a white corsage.

The bridegroom wore a navy suit with a white boutonniere. The bestman, Phillip Sherbondy of Omaha, wore a brown suit and a white boutonniere.

Mrs. George McNair, mother of the bride, chose a rose colored lace dress with a white corsage. Mr. McNair was unable to be present at the wedding. The bride was given in marriage by Ed Johnson, of Omaha.

Ken Richards of Omaha, was usher. Mrs. Lola Sherbondy of Omaha, was in charge of the guest book.

A reception followed in the church basement for 35 guests. Mrs. Bush is employed as a commercial artist for the Epsen Lithograph company in Omaha and teaches at the Omaha Art school children's classes on Saturday.
