

Mrs. Anthony Anewalt, nee Elizabeth Jane Gallagher . . . to reside in San Diego.—O'Neill Photo Co.

Gallagher-Anewalt Noon Nuptials Read in St. Patrick's

Poinsettias banked the altars of St. Patrick's Catholic church with Christmas trees on either side for the wedding Saturday, December 29 of Miss Elizabeth Jane Gallagher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mann Gallagher, to Anthony Anewalt, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Phillip Anewalt of San Diego, Calif. Very Rev. Timothy O'Sullivan, pastor, performed the noon ceremony.

The altar railing had arrangements of white carnations and the pews were tied with Christmas greens, holly and white bows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a white satin slipper gown with a very full skirt, accented with hidden hoops and ending in a cathedral train. The sabrina neckline featured a yoke of Alencon lace re-embroidered with tiny seed pearls and sequins and in the back, tiny buttons down to the Basque waist. The long sleeves were pointed at the wrists. Her illusion fingertip veil, which matched the Alencon lace in her gown, was caught by a tiara sprinkled with seed pearls and sequins. She carried stephanotis.

Mrs. D. C. Larson of Northbrook, Ill., was her sister's matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Mrs. J. Robert Berigan of O'Neill and Miss Barbara Birmingham of Denver, Colo. They wore gowns of Christmas green velvet with portrait neckline and empire waist. Their narrow ermine headbands had jewel clips at the sides. They carried tiny ermine muffs, decorated with sprigs of holly and wore one buttoned French kid gloves, pearl chokers and matching button earrings.

The bestman was Richard Sundberg of San Diego, Calif. Ushers were Hicks Williams of San Francisco, Calif., and D. C. Larson of Northbrook, Ill. Assisting at the church were W. J. Froelich, jr., of Chicago, Ill., J. Robert Berigan, John Watson and Edward Campbell of Green Bay, Wis. The men wore gray suits, with Mr. Anewalt wearing a stephanotis boutonniere and the others, carnation boutonnieres.

Mrs. Gallagher, the bride's mother, appeared in an antique gold satin shirt waist gown with a bow in the back and wide soft pleats. Her matching headband of chiffon was sprinkled with rhinestones. She had matching accessories and a cymbidium corsage.

The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Anewalt, appeared in a French blue satin sheath dress with a jacket. She had a tiny matching hat and shoes, and a cymbidium corsage.

Mrs. Joseph Hansen, of Norfolk, accompanied by Sr. M. Michael sang "Ave Maria", "O Sanctissima" and "On This Day."

A breakfast for 125 guests was held at the American Legion club. Organ music was played by Mrs. Ruth Warwick of Norfolk. White, silver and green formed the setting at the club. White carnations, greens and baby's breath formed the centerpiece with smilax extending the length of the table on both sides of the bride's table. The five-tiered wedding cake had arrangements of white carnations on either side.

For her wedding trip to Las Vegas, Nev., and San Francisco, Calif., Mrs. Anewalt wore a beige wool suit, matching satin hat, brown lizard shoes and handbag. They will reside in San Diego, Calif.

Mrs. Anewalt is a graduate of St. Mary's academy and the University of Nebraska where she was a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma. She also studied at Rosary college, near Chicago, Ill.

Mr. Anewalt, a graduate of a San Diego high school and Stanford university, is associated with his father in the real estate business.

Women's Society in 1956 Final Meet

STUART—The Women's Society of the Community church held its last meeting for 1956 in the church basement on Thursday, December 27, with 14 members present.

The devotions and program were led by Mrs. Noma Hall, Mrs. Bessie Gettert and Mrs. D. D. Su. The annual report was given and the year's business brought to a close.

Lunch was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Walter Gill, Mrs. Ima Myers and Mrs. C. R. Myers.

Well-Filled Church Witness Program

EWING—The Christmas program of the Ewing Methodist church was presented Sunday evening, December 23 at 8 o'clock to a well-filled church. Dewitt Hoke, superintendent of the Sunday-school, was in charge.

The opening numbers were Christmas songs by the congregation and the Christmas story by Rev. Lee Bridgen, followed by prayer.

The welcome and two exercises were given by the primary department of the Sunday-school. Children participating were Roxanne Ruby, Leigh and Bobby Pruden, Marilyn Sedivy, Kim Ruby, all beginners; Kay Fleming, David Woepel, Randall Tuttle, Jan Ruby, Debra Buxton, Linda Ecker, Gail Fleming, Jimmie Elliott, Myra Pruden, Duane Tinsley, Kay Hahlbeck, Nancy Loughrey and Donna Tams. Miss Jeane Welke is the superintendent of the primary department. Teachers are: Mrs. Robert Tams, Mrs. Claude Elliott and Miss Iris VanOstrand. Pianist is Miss Carolyn Tams. The second part of the program was a one-act play, "The Christmas House", by the upper room society, made up of parents and their families. Characters were: Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Davis, Betty Wright and Jerry Tams who played the part of a family; Claude Elliott and son, Jimmie, Bobbie Tams and Dean Kimes, shepherds; Mr. and Mrs. John Wood, who played the part of Joseph and Mary in the pantomime scene. Musical selections throughout the play, were sung by the junior choir in charge of Mrs. Dewitt Hoke, with Miss Janel Hoke pianist. Others assisting in the play were Mrs. H. R. Harris, Ray Sedivy, properties, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Pierson, stage and costumes.

After the benediction by Rev. Bridgen, treats were distributed. Rev. and Mrs. Bridgen and Gary were presented gifts by the congregation.
