LETTER TO EDITOR

Bentonville, Ark. January 14, 1957. Editor: Have noticed some of your editorials are full of horse sense, notably those dealing with the small school situation.

Am glad Frank Nelson is getting a little of his justly due credit. I don't know where you could find a man you could trust more.

He may be offset by Terry Carpenter.

Cold day today—30 degrees. Weather has been excellent. No snow.

Karen M. Donohoe, Harold Rotherham Exchange Vows

Before an altar of poinsettias and Christmas trees, Miss Karen Mildred Donohoe was united in marriage to Harold Jerome Rotherham of Ewing, at a 9 a.m. nuptial mass Saturday, January 12, at St. Patrick's Catholic church.

Very Rev. Timothy O'Sullivan, church pastor officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Miss Donohoe is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Donohoe of O'Neill and Mr. Rotherham is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rotherham of Ewing.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a waltz-length beige gown trimmed with matching lace. It featured a portrait neckline and short sleeves. The fitted bodice was along princess styling. Her hat was beige and she carried a bouquet of yellow poms with lace and brown ribbon.

A sister of the bride, Mrs. Bud Cloyd of Sidney, Ia., her matron-of-honor, appeared in a waltz-length cocoa brown gown styled with portrait neckline and short sleeves. Her bouquet was of yellow poms and green ribbon and lace.

Mr. Rotherham wore a brown flecked suit and white boutonniere. His best man, Vincent Rotherham of Ewing, a brother, appeared in a navy suit and white boutonniere.

Ushers were Edward Donohoe and Vernon W. Donohoe, brothers of the bride. Ray Donohoe, the bride's brother, was soloist, accompanied by Mrs. Gene Wolfe at the organ. He sang "Ave Maria", "On This Day" and "O Lord, I Am Not Worthy."

A breakfast at the Town House for the wedding party followed. A reception for one hundred guests at the home of the bride's parents was held in the afternoon.

Mrs. Arnold Gaggert of Elgin, a sister of the bridegroom, cut the three-tier wedding cake, which was decorated with pale yellow roses and topped by a miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Thomas Clark, assisted by Mrs. John Jansen, Mrs. Francis Clark and Miss Catherine Donohoe, served.

Miss Mary Katherine Turner poured. Mrs. Edward Cuddy had charge of the guest book and the Misses Bernadine and Jeraldine Rotherham of Ewing, sisters

Engagement Told

Richard Tomlinson of O'Neill and Mrs. Doris Tomlinson of Rocky Ford, Colo., announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Patricia (above) to Larry Lee Brookhouser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Brookhouser of Venus. Larry is a graduate of Verdigre high school in 1950.—O'Neill Photo Co.

Enroute to Germany

Mrs. Lester Walton and daughter, Charlotte Kay, 2, will leave O'Neill Sunday for New York City. Next Wednesday they will board a ship for Bremerhaven, Germany, docking there January 29. Mrs. Walton will be joining her husband, who will be stationed there for a year or more. Mrs. Walton and Charlotte Kay have been at the home of Mrs. Walton's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Parker.

Germany is Fine

Little Kathy Ann Kruntorad (above), who on February 3 will be one-year-old, thinks life is okay in Western Germany where she resides with her father and mother, Sfc. Wayne C. Kruntorad and wife. The child's mother is the former Marilyn Ries, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Ries of Atkinson. Mr. Kruntorad, formerly of Ewing, is with company A, 86th Infantry regiment APO 36, New York City and in six months will be enroute back to the United States. Kathy is the first grandchild for Mr. and Mrs. John Pruss of O'Neill.
