

Miss Kay Riley,
Jack Gatz Wed
in Fairbury Rite

Miss Kay Riley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Riley of Fairbury, became the bride of Jack Gatz, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Gatz of O'Neill, Saturday, January 26.

Rev. R. S. Haukap performed the ceremony at 11:30 o'clock in St. Michael's Catholic church, Fairbury, in the presence of two hundred guests.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Gatz of O'Neill, sister of the bridegroom, sang "Ave Maria." She was accompanied at the organ by Miss Judy Walker, who played softly during the ceremony. She used as the processional and recessional, "Coeur de Jesus."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of silk cloud taffeta designed along classic simple lines. Re-embroidered Alencon lace framed the Sabrina neckline and extended almost to the waist of the snugly fitted bodice, which was fashioned with long fitted sleeves coming to bridal points. The aisle-wide floor-length skirt extended into a graceful chapel train. An imported lace shell cap edged with scalloped seed pearl trim, held in place her three-tier French illusion elbow-length veil. She carried a colonial bouquet of white gardenias and stephanotis.

Miss Jane Kennedy of Coon Rapids, Ia., was maid-of-honor, and Miss Mary Riley, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. The bride's attendants were gowned alike in frocks of champagne color silk taffeta, fashioned with rounded neckline and long fitted sleeves, featuring matching cummerbund with large bow in back and full waltz-length skirt. They carried nosegays of lavender mums.

William Riley, brother of the bride was bestman. Seating the guests were Daniel Riley, brother of the bride, and William Nuckolls.

A reception for two hundred guests was held at the Fairbury Country club. Assisting with the reception were Madames Roy Schainost, L. W. Schluckebier, Jack Skidmore, George Burger, Jess Lee, William Neville, Frank Watson and Patricia Sims.

The bride is a graduate of Duchesne college, Omaha. The bridegroom attended the University of Nebraska and Creighton University, Omaha.

A member of Beta Theta Pi, Mr. Gatz returned recently from Hawaii where he served with the infantry. He will continue his studies at Creighton university. Mrs. Gatz, a former airline hostess, is a teacher at Beals school, Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Gatz will make their home at 807 South 60th, Omaha.

Among those attending were Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Gatz and Miss Mary Elizabeth, Mrs. Mary McLeod, Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Lohaus and two daughters, Mrs. Gladys Oxford, Miss Lorraine Simonson, Donovan Becker, John Joe Uhl, Patrick Hickey, Jack Carney, all of O'Neill; Mr. and Mrs. Mark Fangman of Omaha, and Jess Wills of Emmet.

Plans were made for good-turn day Saturday, February 2, when Scouts will distribute bags and cards through the residential area of Ewing for the Goodwill Industries for the handicapped.

Summer activities were discussed. District institutional of the Sandhill district of the Covered Wagon council was held at Ainsworth Monday evening, where plans were discussed for better scouting for the coming year. Attending from Ewing were William Spence and Clifford Hahlbeck.
