Belated Dinner for Anniversaries

PAGE—Mr. and Mrs. John Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Haynes, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Copes, Mrs. Bertha Reed and her son, George Clinton of Los Angeles, Calif., were guests Thursday of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harper for a belated birthday anniversary dinner party.
Those anniversaries were noted in December were Mrs. Reed, Mrs. Copes, John Gray, Allen Haynes and Harry Harper.
It has been a custom for many years for these friends to get together during December for a dinner party, but the event was delayed this year because of the illness and hospitalization of Mrs. Reed.

Niece's Husband Killed in Minnesota

Mrs. Rosa Bowers received word that her niece's husband, Lester Filger of Detroit Lakes, Minn., was killed in an auto accident Saturday. He was a salesman for Curtiss candy. The Filgers lost their little son a year ago Christmas.
Mrs. Bowers and her daughter, Mrs. Marion Woldneck plan to attend the funeral today (Thursday) at 2 p.m. in Norfolk.
Mrs. Walter Tomlinson and Nina of Grand Island spent last week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bredehoff. Mr. Tomlinson came on Friday evening and they all returned to their home on Sunday afternoon.

Sister Is Ill

Mrs. D. C. Schaffer will leave Friday for Marysville, Wash., to visit her sister, Mrs. George Rector, Mr. Rector and family. Mrs. Rector is recuperating from a recent operation.

Club Meets

The JANWA club met with Mrs. John Stulberg Tuesday evening. Dessert luncheon was served.

Marie Ritz Wins Homemaking Honor

The Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow at St. Mary's Academy is Marie Ritz.
She received the highest score in a written examination on homemaking knowledge and attitudes, administered last month to senior girls in the graduating class. Her examination paper will be entered in competition to name this state's candidate for the title of all-American homemaking of tomorrow and will also be considered for the runner-up award in the state. For her achievement, she will receive an award pen designed by Trifari of New York.

The national winner in the third annual search conducted among 300,526 young women in 11,636 of the nation's public, private and parochial high schools will be named May 2 at the American table banquet in the Waldorf-Astoria hotel, New York City.

Art Bridge, Wife Plan Open-House

North - Antelope Pair Wed Half-Century
ORCHARD—Mr. and Mrs. Art Bridge will observe their golden wedding anniversary by holding open-house at the United Brethren church, Sunday, February 3, from 2 to 4 p.m. The affair is being arranged by their five children.
Alfred Arthur Bridge and Rose Belle Harvey were married February 6, 1907, at the courthouse in Neligh by County Judge Robert Wilson. Their attendants were the bride's sisters, Mrs. Jess Sutton of Neligh, and Roy Robinson.
Mr. and Mrs. Bridge began housekeeping on the Henry Drayton farm west of Orchard. They have lived in north Antelope county 50 years. Their present home is in the Pleasant Valley neighborhood, where they have lived for 26 years.
Mr. and Mrs. Bridge are the parents of five children: Harriette of O'Neill; Clifford of Sterling, Colo.; Kenneth of Royal, Edna Reed of Orchard, Edith Howard of Orchard. All of the children are graduates of the Orchard high school. There are nine grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.
Mrs. Bridge was born October 29, 1882, of pioneer parents, C. L. and Mahala Bridge, in a log house near Ewing. He was one of a family of 10 children—six boys and four girls. His sisters are Mrs. Otto Schwager of Orchard, Jessie Volz of Cedar Rapids, Ia., and the brothers are James of Page and William of Gordon.
Mrs. Bridge was born October 30, 1889, to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Harvey on a farm six miles north of Orchard. Her mother, 87, is still living and is active. There were eight children in the family besides three half sisters.

Indras Honored at Housewarming

A housewarming was given to Mr. and Mrs. Orville Indra Saturday night in their new home by soil conservation and extension club personnel and their families. A covered dish supper was brought by each family.
About 25 guests were present. A gift of money was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Indra to be used for shrubbery for the new home.

Coloradean Here

Mrs. Phil Canfield of Julesburg, Colo., came Sunday to visit her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon O. Ransel and to help when Norman Ransel is dismissed from St. Anthony's hospital after surgery.
