Cardinals Raked in Lynch Overtime

LYNCH—The Lynch high Eagles upset the St. Mary's academy Cardinals in an overtime cage thriller Tuesday night, 49-46. The Cards, fresh from their victorious stand in the Holt county tourney, were pregame favorites.

The Cardinals moved to an easy lead and enjoyed a 27-20 halftime lead despite the fact they were unable to deploy with their usual patterns because of the small arena.

Lynch was fairly well bottled up and relied on freethrows to stay in the game. Lynch moved up as fouls sidelined Jim Becker and Gary Holly. Big Jim Froelich, who had been confined at home with the flu, was used sparingly by Coach Don Tempemeyer.

Holly and Becker paced the Cards with 15 and 12 points, respectively, before being hustled to the showers in the third via the foul route. St. Mary's outscored the foe from the field, 21-12, but Lynch was red hot at the free-throw lane, dunking 25 compared to the Cards' four. Twenty-six fouls were assessed against the parochial quintet compared to nine for Lynch.

Count was 44-all at the end of regular playing time.

St. Mary's will play the Spencer Pirates at Spencer Friday night in another Niobrara Valley loop contest. The Pirates have lost only to Center in Nebraska competition.

Motley Crews in Polio Benefit

ATKINSON—There will be plenty of fun in store tonight (Thursday) in a triple-header polio benefit basketball card at the Atkinson school auditorium.

The first game, 7 o'clock, the Atkinson first grade Hot Shots will go against their compatriots, Not So Hot Shots.

In the second game, the St. Joseph's Hall sixth, seventh and eighth graders will take on their cross-town counterparts from the public school.

In the nightcap, which features no holds barred, the Atkinson volunteer firemen with Joe Seger at the respirator will tackle the Chamber of Commerce with James E. Ramsey as attending physician.

The St. Mary's academy Cardinals gained the finals in the annual Holt tourney by turning back the Stuart Broncos, 38-28, in Thursday night's semifinal play. Earlier the Cards had downed the plucky Chambers Coyotes, 47-41.

In the other half of the semifinal billing, the Inman Tigers ousted the St. Joseph's hall Blue Jays of Atkinson, 53-43. Inman previously had put the skids on the Ewing Tigers, 52-43.

St. Mary's 38; Stuart 28

It was a nip-and-tuck ballgame until Coach Don Tempemeyer's Cards tightened the screws on the Broncos in the final period, holding the foe scoreless and piling in eight more points with two free-throws.

St. Mary's posted an 18-11 first period lead and held a 24-21 advantage at the half. But the Broncos, featuring a nifty forward in Dana Bigelow, were capable of turning on the steam at any moment.

Strength of the Cards' attack lay in the fact that all hands got into the scoring act with Larry Tomlinson showing the way with 10 points.

The second half was tight in every sense. St. Mary's collected six points in the third stanza, compared to Stuart's seven, making the count 30-28 at the start of the fourth with the parochial team clinging to the lead.

A total of 15 freethrows were attempted during the long, drawnout, crucial fourth.

Finals

St. Mary's 41; Inman 37

An incredible first-half scoring exhibition by Inman's Roland Hansen and a bottling up of Mr. Hansen and his mates in the final stanzas featured Friday night's title game in the 20th annual Holt county prep cage tourney.

The St. Mary's academy Cardinals, trailing until late in the game, controlled the ball and both boards during the final period and knocked off the defending champions, 41-37.

A full house looked on as the Tigers built an 11-1 lead in the opening minutes. They appeared enroute to their third consecutive Holt crown.

Mr. Hansen was hotter'n the proverbial red wagon. In the first half he fired four fielders—long ones—and seven freethrows.

Inman led 16-8 at the first quarter mark and owned a 25-16 halftime lead. Inman relied ball control and Mr. Hansen's sharp eye during the first half. Loomer was supposed to have been hurt by graduation last year, but having gained the finals and built an impressive lead over the other finalist, there were few in the house that questioned but what the Tigers again were on the glory trail.

The Tigers outscored the Cards in the field in the third, but St. Mary's grabbed five points at the free-throw line. Going into the decisive fourth, Inman still led, 31-27.

St. Mary's was leading 36-33 with two minutes remaining. Big Tom Schneider, with no place to go except for the basket, drove in to make it 38-33—and that one appeared to break the Tigers with 1½ minutes left.

Jim McGinn stopped abruptly and was fouled by Ned Kelley. He sank both tries and made it

Inman 53; St. Joe 43

Ned Kelley, an Inman junior who rated as one of the outstanding individual performers in the tourney, rolled up 22 points in Thursday night's semifinal go against the St. Joe Bluejays, won by Inman, 53-43. But Ray Schaffer, a Jay junior, pressed closely for scoring honors, pumping in 21 for the losers.

The Josies led 15-12 at the end of the first period of play with Schaffer accounting for eight points. Coach Bob Loomer's Inman Tigers defending champs, clamped down on the Jays during the second period, restricting the Atkinson parochial quintet to a lone field goal and two freethrows out of three tries. Meanwhile, the Tigers tallied 14 with Ned Kelley, Neal Kelley and Roland Hansen doing the firing. Inman led, 26-19, at the half-way mark.

Inman continued to roll in the third, mounting 15 points compared to the Josies' nine, providing a 41-28 margin at the end of the third.

The Josies worked hard to outscore Inman in the final period but couldn't overcome the earlier deficit.

Market Report
Monday, January 28

Eighty five consignors placed their confidence in our market today. Some traveled as far as 65 to 70 miles. Our market was not the ball of fire that it was a week ago, but hogs sold well in line with the prevailing markets. We did have a top of $19.40, however the bulk of the No. 1 hogs sold from $19.10 to $19.25. The majority of the butchers sold from $18.75 to $18.90. Quality was not nearly so predominant and we had considerably more heavy hogs.

Very few sows in the offering. Light butchers on feeder account sold from $18.25 to $19.50. Shoats sold up to $20.90.

When you have cattle or hogs ready for market, why not try your next consignment in Verdigré. We appreciate our patronage. Remember the hog sale starts at 11 a. m. Sale every MONDAY.
