NCNC Tourney Goes According to Plan

First round play in the North-Central Nebraska conference basketball tourney at Atkinson Monday night fairly well followed the form sheet. Bassett, Valentine, Ainsworth and Atkinson won opening round victories. Valentine and Ainsworth were pressed by Stuart and Springfield. Semi-final play will resume tonight (Thursday) with Ainsworth and Bassett opening play at 7 o'clock and Atkinson and Valentine meeting in the second contest at 8:45. Finals and third place will be played Friday night.

Valentine 66; Stuart 59 Valentine and Stuart opened the NCNC tourney with an interesting fracas. The Valentine Badgers pulled to a 39-32 halftime advantage and maintained their seven-point bulge to win 66-59.

Bassett 67; Long Pine 30 The Rock county high quintet from Bassett raced to a 34-12 halftime advantage in the opening round game with Long Pine to take home the victory 67-30.

Ainsworth 51; Springfield 47 The Keya Paha county entry from Springfield came the closest to upsetting the experts as they displayed a versatile attack to press seeded Ainsworth 51-47 Tuesday night. Trailing by nine points, 16-25, at halftime, Springfield rallied behind Carlyle Cook's 18 points to close the gap.

Atkinson 59; O'Neill 30 In final action in first round play Tuesday night, Atkinson's Balers showed class with a 59-30 romp past O'Neill high Eagles. Halftime score was 34-12.

O'Neill to Share Class B Tourney Four teams will compete at O'Neill and four will compete at Chadron for final berths in the district Class B tourney this year, according to the Nebraska High School Activities association.

Games will be played simultaneously at both places during the week of February 25. Finals will be played Friday, March 1, at Valentine.

Assigned to the O'Neill portion are Ainsworth, Bassett, Neligh and O'Neill. Competing at Chadron will be Chadron high, Crawford, Gordon and Hemingford.

Pairings, dates and times for the show will be fixed at Valentine this weekend. Officials also will be named.

The district meet was split because of the vast distances involved. Heretofore, O'Neill usually has been the site of class B competition.

Atkinson will be host to the class C tourney. Competing teams will be Atkinson high, St. Joseph's hall of Atkinson, St. Mary's of O'Neill, Verdigre, Stuart, Spencer, Butte and Springfield.

Assigned to the class D tourney at Center will be Center, St. Ludwig of Creighton, Orchard, Page, Inman, Chambers, Lynch and Naper.
