Exchange Vows in Ewing Church Rites

EWING—Miss Winnifred Mary Vandernick became the bride of Richard L. Cunningham at 9 a.m. on Thursday, February 7, at St. Peter's Catholic church in Ewing. Rev. Peter Burke officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Vandernick of Ewing. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Cunningham of Page.

This day was also the 36th wedding anniversary of the bride's parents. The altar was decorated with yellow gladioli and acacia.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white Chantilly lace and net gown. The molded bodice of lace featured a scoop neckline outlined with pearlized sequins. The long fitted lace sleeves were pointed at the wrists. The bouffant skirt of net was highlighted with panels of lace in front and cascades of net lace fell into a sweep train in the back.

Her finger-tip veil was held in place with a pearl-trimmed head piece.

She also wore the traditional something old, new. Her bouquet was of yellow roses centered with a large white orchid.

Mrs. Lyle Mitties of Ewing, sister of the bride, was matron-of-honor and Miss Maureen Mahoney of O'Neill was the bridesmaid. They wore identical gowns of white chenille flecked over sheer maize taffeta, featuring a cummerbund and long streamers in the back of maize taffeta.

They wore short rhinestone trimmed veils held in place by velvet bandeaus.

Mardell Vandernick of Clearwater, cousin of the bride, was flowergirl. She wore a floor-length white embroidered nylon lace dress with a yellow sash and yellow flowered bandeau.

The attendant carried bouquets of yellow baby chrysanthemums with white lace ribbon and streamers.

The bridegroom was attended by Sidney Frahm of O'Neill as groomsmen, and best man was Dennis Cunningham, brother of the bridegroom. Georgie VanConet was ringbearer.

The bridegroom and his attendants wore white dinner jackets and black trousers. Each wore a yellow carnation boutonniere.

Ushers were Don Vandernick of Ewing, brother of the bride, and Warren Cronk of Page.

The mothers of the couple wore navy blue dresses with white carnation corsages.

Music was furnished by St. Peter's choir. Soloist was Miss Donna Mlnarik, who sang "On This Day," "O Beautiful Mother." Organist was A. E. Spittler. Mass servers were Jerry Jefferies and Ronnie Thoendel.

Miss Doris Ann Spahn of Ewing had charge of the guest book at the church. The wedding dinner was served at St. Dominic's hall by the Christian Mothers of the parish.

The reception was also held at the hall from 2 until 5 p.m. The three-tier wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom, was baked and decorated in the bride's chosen colors of yellow and white by Mrs. Carl Thiele of Clearwater, aunt of the bride. The cake centered the bride's table.

In honor of the 36th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Vandernick, a second cake was baked and decorated by their children.

cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Louis Vandernick of Ewing poured. Mrs. Joe Kaczor, sister of the bride, had charge of the guest book. Assisting with the gifts were the Misses Jeanne Welke and Donna Mlnarik and the bride's attendants.

Waitresses were the Misses Marilyn Finley, Mary Ann Kallhoff, Irene Kaczor of Ewing, Jo Brantman of O'Neill, Kathleen Walker and Marlene Frahm of Page.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Page high school. The bride was graduated from St. Mary's academy of O'Neill and has been employed at the Ewing Co-Operative Creamery.

The bride chose a two-piece aqua dress with black accessories for traveling. After a wedding trip to the East, the couple will live near Page, where the bridegroom is engaged in farming and is also employed at the postoffice.
