Goodsell Hits 30 but Balers Triumph

Boesen's Kids Have 14-3 Record

ATKINSON—Coach Marvin Boesen's Atkinson high school basketball team, fresh from last week's victorious triumph in the North-Central Nebraska conference basketball tournament, ran wild Tuesday night at the expense of the Burwell Longhorns, 30-52.

Atkinson led 37-26 at the half, and then loosed a fast-break attack that caused the Longhorns to buckle under in spite of some terrific jump-shooting by Dick Goodsell, Burwell's 6-2 sophomore center.

Ron Frickel rolled in 27 for the winners and Duane Humphrey scored 21. The win makes it number 14 for the Balers compared to their losses. At the outset of the season the Balers lost to St. Mary's academy of O'Neill, 44-53, and to Ainsworth, 55-72. But in 14 out of the past 15 starts, Boesen's crew has triumphed.

Class C Tourney Could Be Explosive

ATKINSON—The district class C basketball tournament will get underway here Monday evening, February 25.

In the opener, it will be the Spencer Pirates vs. the Kaya Pana county (Springview) Indians at 7 o'clock. Second game will find the St. Joseph's hall Bluejays tackling the Holt county champs—the St. Mary's academy Cardinals, starting at 8:30 o'clock. Teams in the opening night show represent the top bracket.

In the lower bracket, the first game will be played Tuesday evening, the Verdigre Hawks vs. Butte, starting at 7 o'clock. Tuesday's second game will see the Atkinson high Balers, champs of the North-Central Nebraska conference tourney, going against their western neighbors, the Stuart Broncos, starting at 8:30.

Verdigre last week won the Niobrara Valley conference crown. Semifinals will be played Thursday, February 28, and finals will be played Friday, March 1. The champion will be eligible for a four-team playoff before becoming eligible to participate in the 16-team state class C carnival at Lincoln in March.

The Atkinson meet is capable of being an explosive affair. St. Mary's although holding an early season win over Atkinson, is hot and cold; Atkinson currently is riding high; Verdigre and Spencer are strong and the Stuart Broncos are capable of ousting anybody on a given night.
