Cubs Read Stories About Indians

Cub Scouts of den 4 met Wednesday after school. They read stories on the Indian pictures received from the Pontiac dealer. Next week the Cubs are going to make drums, and start making teepees for their Indian village.—By Kenneth Lieb.

MAKES HONOR ROLL

EMMETT—Leah Serck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Serck, has been named one of 32 students at Concordia college, Seward, on the first semester honor roll.

D. N. Loy, Wife in Golden Wedding

(Continued from page 1.) sound of the school bell sent young feet out the Loy front door on their way to classes. After the youngest of the Loy children—Donald—had completed his schooling, the couple provided board and room for rural children who lived too far to commute. In one instance she kept three high school students from a single family.

One of Mr. Loy's brothers, Edward, formerly lived at O'Neill. He now lives at Ozone, Ark. Another brother, Harvey, died four years ago at Ft. Scott, Kans. Of the two girls and five boys in the original Loy family at Allen, only one is deceased.

Mrs. Loy has a brother, Hurley, living at O'Neill; another brother, Ben, residing at Turlock, Calif.; and two sisters, Mrs. John (Dora) Walmer, sr., of Orchard and Mrs. Jennie Binkerd of Whittier, Calif.

The Loy's have always belonged to First Presbyterian church and Mrs. Loy is the oldest living member in point of membership—54 years. She is active in the Women's association of the church and also is active in extension club work.

They have 27 grandchildren and 17 great-grandchildren. All of their children were present for Sunday's celebration, numerous grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

140 Cards Received
They received 140 cards and letters and more than two hundred signed the guestbook at the Sunday afternoon reception held in the new Fellowship hall at First Presbyterian church.

Among out-of-town persons present were:

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Renner and family of Norfolk; Anna Jones of Norfolk; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Jones of Neligh; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Benson and family of Norfolk; Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Benson and family of Norfolk; Mrs. Mildred Christenson of Cedar Falls, Ia.

Mr. and Mrs. Myron Ellis of Allen; Mrs. Berton Kimball of McLean; Mr. and Mrs. Duane Kennedy of Valentine; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Kennedy of Ainsworth; Rolland Loy of Salt Lake City, Utah; Mrs. Arthur Goree of White Salmon, Wash.; Mrs. Henry Layton of Monte Vista, Calif.; Mrs. Charles Green of Seattle, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Holliday and family of Grand Island; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Loy and family of St. Paul; Richard Loy of Lake-wood, Calif.

In addition there were other friends from Page, Allen, Chambers, Norfolk and Inman.

Entertain Guests

Sunday dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard McLain and family were Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Johnson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Pat McLain and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McLain and Judy. Miss Debbie McLain accompanied her grandparents home for a week's vacation.
