

Long Hospitalized, Art Waldman Walks

AMELIA—Mrs. Art Doolittle received a letter from her uncle, Art Waldman, Saturday stating that he had walked to the barber shop that week—a distance of about five blocks.

His trip tired him "very much" and his leg was bothering him some.

He was a patient in Atkinson hospital last fall for 15 weeks. He had planned to visit his daughters, Mrs. Leo Marcellus and Mrs. Emmett Carr in California upon his release from the hospital, but he has been staying with his sister in Lincoln. The letter stated he would come to Amelia before going to California.

His birthday is Friday, March 15 and a card shower is planned. His address is 2491 So. 9th St., Lincoln, Nebr.
