Unpleasant Tastes Are Recited—The Kellar Extension club met Wednesday, March 13 at the home of Mrs. Genevieve Bell with Mrs. C. E. Tibbets as co-hostess. Eighteen members and five guests were present.

Roll call was answered by naming an unpleasant household taste.

Mrs. Melvin Bell was in charge of the program which consisted of a quiz based on United States history and newspaper articles. Mrs. E. A. Farrier presented a reading, Mrs. Ed Eisenhauer received the door prize.

Lunch was served by the hostesses. Next meeting will be on Wednesday, March 27, at the home of Mrs. Melvin Bell.

Mr. and Mrs. James Reed Dawson... wed in Van Nuys church ceremony.

Colleen T. Sullivan Is Recent Bride

Miss Colleen Terry O'Sullivan, daughter of Mrs. Mary O'Sullivan of Van Nuys, Calif., and Terry O'Sullivan of New York City, was united in marriage to James Reed Dawson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dawson of Phoenix, Ariz., recently at a Sunday afternoon double ring-ceremony at St. Elizabeth's church in Van Nuys by Rev. Shill.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a Priscilla Boston gown of beau de soie, princess styled, accented by a rose point lace yoke, tiny capped sleeves and chapel train. A small crown of pearls held her fingertip veil. She carried stephonia and white orchids.

Kathleen O'Sullivan, a sister, as maid-of-honor, wore ice green satin frock. Phyllis Smith, Marie Sweeney, Molly Maureen O'Sullivan and Donna Vosika were bridesmaids, appearing in pink satin frocks fashioned along princess lines.

Sandra Tucker was flowergirl; Craig Jones, ringbearer.

Dean Betts was bestman.

Groomsman were Ronald Dawson, Richard Butler, James Matheny and Thomas Dawson, with Jay Arnold, uncle of the bride, sang "Ave Maria" and "On This Day" accompanied on the organ by Miss Marilyn Barnes.

Four hundred attended the ceremony and the reception. The latter was held at the Glen Aire Country club, in Sherman Oaks, Calif.

Mrs. O'Sullivan, mother of the bride, received her guests in the Fireside room, wearing a light blue peau de sole sheath with chiffon back drape and accessories to match.

Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of Van Nuys high schools, 1955 and 1956, respectively.

The couple motored to Las Vegas, Nev. They will be at home in Westwood Village, near the University of California (Los Angeles). The bridegroom played left tackle on the UCLA varsity football team last season.

The bride is a great-granddaughter of Stephen E. Hicks and Mrs. George Bowden, both of O'Neill. Her mother was the former Mary Gertrude Bowden, who attended school at St. Mary's academy in O'Neill.
