"The Old Reliable" MARKET REPORT

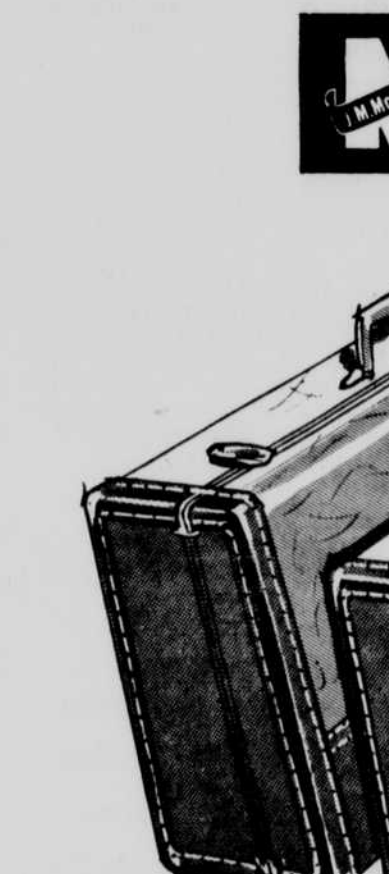

Tuesday, March 19th Auction
Cattle Receipts: 1,316 head. Although storm and road conditions cut the anticipated number of cattle by a thousand head it in no way affected buyer attendance, who braved the inconveniences of weather to attend. Moisture resulting from the heavy snow was a bullish factor in the cow trade, with some 500 breeding cows selling from $134.00 to $162.00 a head average.
The commercial cow market continued its climb, with canners and cutters cashing from 10.50 to 12.00 and beef kinds 12.00 to 14.00 a hundred.
Bulls 13.75 to 14.50. Top steer calves sold from 22.00 to 23.50; Top heifer calves 18.00 to 18.50; Heavier steers looked 21 to 50c up from a week ago.
