Ewing School Dismissed Early—EWING—Ewing was in the path of the snowstorm which hit this area early Thursday morning. Blizzard conditions prevailed throughout the day, piling the snow into four- to six-foot drifts. Visibility ranged from zero and strong gusts of wind accompanied the snow. School was dismissed at 2 o'clock in the afternoon to permit rural students to reach their homes.

Riverside Roads Badly Drifted—RIVERSIDE—This locality received much-needed moisture Thursday and again during Sunday and early Monday in the form of snow, an estimated 10 to 12 inches. Roads are badly drifted. There was no school Monday at Riverside school; also in district 86. No classes were held Monday at Ewing public school.

Deloit Gets Sleet and Snow—DELOIT—This locality received an estimated three to four inches of snow on Thursday. A day, turning to sleet late in the sleet storm covered the area Sunday. An estimated 10 inches of snow covers the ground. Farmers and ranchers welcomed the moisture with open arms.

Eight-Inch Snowfall Reported at Amelia—AMELIA—Sunday and Monday brought wonderful moisture in the form of rain turning to snow. Amelia received about eight inches of snow. The St. Patrick's dance at the Amelia hall was cancelled. Many schools were closed on Monday. Roads were hazardous but not impassable.

'The Angel Brats' Junior Play Title

Members of the junior class of O'Neill high school will present "The Angel Brats", a three-act comedy on Friday evening, March 22, at the school auditorium.

Cast includes:
Betty Fetrow, Larry Gifford, Lynda Haynes, Gale Holcomb, Judy Johnson, Nancy Kennell, Mike Liddy, Melvin Luben, Marion Moseman, Faye Murray, Sharon Nelson, Jane Petersen, Ed Pierson, and Wayne Reynolds.

The play concerns an absent-minded professor who, by accident becomes engaged to three peculiar women. The complications arise when the audience learns he must be married by his 40th birthday anniversary else lose a large inheritance.

Between the acts the first grade will sing several selections and Miss Betty Schultz will sing.
