CHAMBERS—The Woman's Society of Christian Service met Thursday, March 21, at the Methodist church with 19 members present.

Mrs. Herman Holcomb had charge of the devotionals. She reminded that the plus sign elongated, resulted in the cross.

Mrs. Louis Neilson gave a resume of the chapters already covered in the book "Mission USA". Mrs. T. E. Alderson spoke of the work being done by the National Council of Churches through radio and television.

Mrs. Genevieve Bell discussed the work being done by rural churches for migrants and displaced persons.

Mrs. Harry Myers told about college students. Mrs. T. E. Newhouse about prison inmates, and Mrs. A. B. Hubbard about hospital patients, each showing the christian work being done in each category.

Mrs. E. R. Carpenter then presented the chapter "America, God Mend Thine Every Flaw" and stated that persons must not confuse the United States with the kingdom of God, as there are flaws to be mended.

During the business session it was decided to serve a stew and pie supper at the church Saturday, March 30. Mrs. Darrel Gillette reported on the "day apart" meeting held at Plainview.

Lunch was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Steve Shavlik and Mrs. E. H. Medcaif.
