

Make Plans for Banquet Serving

EWING—The Christian Mothers of St. Peter's Catholic church met Tuesday evening, April 2. The ladies gathered at the church where they heard a talk by Rev. P. F. Burke on holy week.

The business meeting was held at St. Dominic's hall. Topic for discussion was the Holt county athletic banquet to be held April 16 at St. Dominic's hall. The banquet will be served by the Christian Mothers. Committees were appointed and the menu was planned.

Coffee was served on adjournment.

O'Neill Market Joins National Association

The American National Livestock Auction association announced this week from its headquarters that the O'Neill Livestock Market has become a participating member of that organization.

The association is the national association of the livestock auction markets in the country. It is composed of individual auction market owners and operators from 41 states, together with the state associations of those markets affiliated together to represent the auction market industry of its livestock consignors.

Headquarters of the association are maintained in Kansas City, Mo., where the administrative staff is headed by C. T. ("Ted") Sanders, E. W. Alberding, Kiowa Sales Co., Kiowa, Kans., is the president.

Leigh and Verne Reynolds are the operators of the O'Neill Livestock Market. They have established an outstanding market for all classes of livestock. Cattle sales are held each Thursday throughout the year.

The American National Livestock Auction association is seeking revision of the packers and stockyards act, enacted before the existence of the livestock auction markets, to properly reorganize auction market operations.
