

Elizabeth Morgan Burial Wednesday

ATKINSON—Graveside funeral services were conducted at 2 p. m. Wednesday, April 10, for Mrs. Elizabeth Morgan, 75, who moved from Atkinson 27 years ago.

She died Thursday, April 4, in Seattle, Wash., following surgery.

The graveside rites were preceded by brief services at Seger's funeral chapel, Rev. Curtis Barnett, Presbyterian pastor, officiating was near the grave of her late husband.

She was preceded in death by her husband, the late James Morgan; one brother, Dave, and one sister, Lucy.

Mr. Morgan was an Atkinson insurance man and at one time served as county judge.

The late Mrs. Morgan was born August 1, 1881, at Salt Lake City, Utah, a daughter of Stewart and Jennie Wiggins Beck.

She was employed for many years as a clerk in the Atkinson postoffice. Following the death of her husband, she made her home with her son, Foster.

Survivors include: Sons—Dr. Kenneth of Sioux City; Foster of Seattle; brothers—James Beck of Atkinson and Harold Beck of Bremerton, Wash.

Men's Fashion Show to Be Presented

Regular meeting of American Legion post 93 was held Tuesday evening.

Plans were made for an armed forces day covered dish dinner. This party will honor World War I members of the post. The committee appointed included past commanders of the post: Vern Reynolds, Elgin Ray, John Watson, Al Carroll, and Virg Laursen.

It was decided to have a home-talent show and ask the auxiliary to help with talent. The feature of this affair will be a second showing of the men's fashion show.

The memorial day program was discussed. Vice-Commander Don Borg and G. Owen Cole will be in charge of the program.

Lunch and refreshments were served with a large attendance present and over 95 per cent of the members wearing their legion caps.
