There was considerable excitement on Saturday at the John Schultz home, when it was discovered that the little girls' pony had presented them with a baby colt. (They say they're going to name him "Blizzard" because of the stormy day.) They were delighted of course, much to the disgust of their faithful companion, the collie dog, Sue. It was bad enough to vie for their favoritism with just the pony, but since the new arrival, to her it seems almost hopeless. However, she hasn't given up.

Miss Barnett . . . 1957 DeMolay sweetheart at impressive Greeley ball.

Named DeMolay Queen at Greeley

AMELIA—Miss Ardie Barnett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence B. Barnett, 1924 Ninth ave., Greeley, Colo., formerly of Amelia, was crowned DeMolay sweetheart queen at the sweetheart ball Saturday, March 30, at Greeley. She was crowned by Bill Farr, master counselor, during an intermission ceremony.

She was presented a sweetheart pin and will represent the Greeley chapter at the Colorado state convention this summer at Longmont. One hundred seventy-five couples witnessed the coronation. The affair was described by the Greeley Tribune as the big teenage social event of the year.
