

80 Seated for Lynch Banquet

LYNCH—Eighty persons were served at the annual Lynch high school athletic banquet held at the school Saturday evening, April 6. The affair was sponsored by the high school pep club girls with Mrs. Nellie Nelson leader.

The gym was decorated in the school colors—black-and-orange. "Sail on to Victory" was the theme. Guests were the athletes, boys, pep club girls, the teachers, their wives and husbands. The mothers served the banquet and the non-athletes were servers. Carl Weeder was toastmaster and Coach Joe Peniska, Supt. Prochaska, Kathryn Mulhair, Victor Pickering and Jimmy Soulek, Rex Carson and Joe Walsh were on the program. Superintendent Prochaska presented the welcome and Coach Joe Peniska presented the awards.

Second Set of Twin Calves Born

INMAN—About two weeks ago an Angus cow at the Ray Siders farmplace in the Steel Creek locality gave birth to twin heifer calves.

Mr. Siders, a prominent Aberdeen-Angus breeder living in retirement here, was all smiles in reporting the incident.

On Friday Mr. Siders suffered a heart attack and died that evening in the O'Neill hospital. Funeral services were held Monday.

Late Monday his laughter, Miss Marilyn, went to the barn at the acreage here, checked on the Angus cow. She discovered a second set of twins—a bull and a heifer.

Before he was stricken with the attack, Mr. Siders had speculated the second set of twins might come along.
