ATTENTION LADIES!

We are going to start a sewing school. We will have three groups. The first will be on Wednesday evening, May 1. The second on Thursday afternoon, May 2. The third, Saturday afternoon, May 4.

If you are interested in learning to sew, please register at our store anytime before May 1.

This is a 6-weeks course—1 day each week (3 hours). You will actually sew a garment. We would appreciate it if you will stop in, in the very near future to enroll. If you have a daughter that would like to learn to sew, do not deprive her of this opportunity.

For more information, stop at our store on Saturday, April 27 if possible.

You need not own an Adler machine—these classes will be open to everyone.
