

Schmitz-Duffy Rites in Clearwater Church

Miss Mary A. Schmitz of Clearwater and John Duffy of Petersburg were united in marriage Wednesday, April 24, at St. Theresa's Catholic church at Clearwater. The nuptial mass was performed by Rev. Albert Sudbeck, pastor of St. John's church at Petersburg.

Miss Schmitz is the daughter of William Schmitz of Clearwater and Mr. Duffy is the son of Mr. Cecelia Duffy of Petersburg.

The bride appeared in an original waltz-length gown of re-embroidered Chantilly lace over taffeta with Elizabethan bodice featuring a sabbina neckline outlined with scalloped lace. The bouffant skirt was fashioned with a tapered hemline and scalloped lace. Her shoulder-length imported lace veil was held by a half hat of sequins and pearls. She carried a white prayer book with a white orchid. Mrs. Gertrude Schmitz of Petersburg, matron of honor, appeared in a gown of blue lace over matching taffeta with a fitted jacket and matching picture hat. She carried white carnations.

Dr. Dwanee J. Peetz of Neligh was bestman. Miss Sharon Murray was soloist, accompanied by Miss Cecelia Ann Arbutnot. A wedding breakfast followed at St. Theresa's hall. A reception for 75 guests was held at the home of the bride's father. Mrs. Margaret Koenig had charge of the guest book and gifts.

After a wedding trip to the Pacific coast, the couple will reside on a farm 1 1/2 miles south of Petersburg.

Mrs. Duffy, a graduate of Ewing high school and Sacred Heart school of nursing in Yankton, S. D., was employed at St. Anthony's hospital and Antelope Memorial hospital in Neligh.

Mr. Duffy, a graduate of St. John's school at Petersburg and Creighton university, college of pharmacy, is manager of the Duffy Pharmacy at Petersburg. He is a brother of Mrs. Jack Arbutnot of O'Neill.

Guests attended from Guthrie Center, Ia., Beatrice, Grafton, St. Edward, Neligh, Elgin, Petersburg, and O'Neill.

To Wed in July

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Allendorfer of Omaha, formerly of O'Neill, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Kay (above), to Don R. McMahon, jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. McMahon of Omaha. Miss Allendorfer and fiancé are students at the University of Omaha. She is majoring in home economics and is a member of Zeta Tau Alpha sorority. The prospective bridegroom is a senior and is a member of the Independent Students association. The couple plans to live in Wichita, Kan., after an early July wedding in Omaha.

Faulhabers Depart for New Location

MIDDLEBRANCH—Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Faulhaber and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Faulhaber and two children departed Tuesday for their new home in Springfield, Ill. The Faulhabers have purchased the Dr. Pepper Bottling company at Springfield and were to take possession Wednesday, May 1.

On Wednesday, April 24, they held an auction of personal property and real estate. The sale was well-attended and Richard told the Frontier they were "highly pleased" with results. Purchaser of the 160-acre farm was Arthur Goller of Orchard. Price was $50 per acre. Earlier the Faulhabers sold another farm to Ervin Held of Page for the same figure—$50 per acre.

A modern house at Middlebranch, owned by the Faulhabers, will be moved into O'Neill within about three weeks.

Clarence Faulhaber had been in the bottling business at O'Neill on one time for a period of about 10 years.
