MARKET REPORT

Monday, May 6, 1957

Another large run of hogs on today's market and in spite of a lower trend, bidding was active and prices seemed to be nearly steady. Extreme top on fancy No. 1 butchers was $18.70. Nearly all of the good No. 1 and No. 2 grades sold from $18.00 to $18.50. Sows sold from $14.65 to $17.25. Weaning pigs sold at about $13.50 each.

There was also a nice run of cattle today. More and more are in the offering each week. If you are considering selling any cattle and would like to have us come out and look at them, call 84W or 86 in Verdigré. Seventy nine consignors placed their confidence in our market today. They know it means more dollars in their pocket to sell their hogs in Verdigré. If you are not one of our customers, we invite you to try your next consignment with us. Buyers are present every Monday to pay top prices. Sale starts at 11:00 A.M. Be sure to attend each week.
