PAGE—The living room of the A. G. Braddock home was the setting for the very pretty wedding of Miss JoAnn Braddock and Bobby Joe Steivison Saturday evening, May 11.

The fireplace was decorated with a mantel arrangement of pink snapdragons and white carnations before which the wedding party stood for the 8 o'clock ceremony performed by Rev. Les Mewmaw, pastor of the Methodist church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alton G. Braddock. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Steivison of Waynesboro, Miss.

The bride appeared in a full skirted, floor-length gown fashioned of white tulle over satin that featured an over-lace bolero over the fitted bodice. Her fingertip veil was modeled of illusion net caught and held in a lace head band with a seed pearl and rhinestone trim. She carried white carnations on a white Bible.

Mrs. Richard Buxton, cousin of the bride, was matron-of-honor. Her gown was of pink brocaded tulle over satin and she carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Rusk Richardson of Lincoln, friend of the bridegroom acted as bestman.

Following the ceremony a reception was held for the 24 guests. Mesdames George Clasey and Otto Matschullat assisted with the serving. Mrs. Kenneth Braddock served the wedding cake and Miss Alice French poured.

The setting for the wedding was the same as for her parents' wedding 27 years ago. Mrs. Leonard Heiss, great-aunt of the bride, was present. She, all the bride's parents and grandparents, Jennie Moffat and Wallace French.

The bride is a graduate of the Page high school and has three years training at the Lincoln general hospital school of nursing.

The bridegroom entered the airforce following his schooling and is based at the Lincoln air base.

The couple left for a short wedding trip and will be at home in Lincoln later in the month.
