Christmas in May for Store Owners
It will be Christmas in May for A. P. Jaskowiak when he attends the Western Auto company's two-day merchandise show May 19-20 at Kansas City, Mo. He and his wife and daughter, Nyla, will leave Saturday and return Tuesday.

Mr. Jaskowiak is owner of the Western Auto Associate store at O'Neill which he has owned and operated for 17 years.

"It's like Christmas in May for us when we attend one of these shows. I wish every boy and girl in town could see the wonderful array of toys at the show—they would be quite thrilled," Mr. Jaskowiak stated. "Many children do attend these Christmas shows with their parents," he added.

At the show, Mr. Jaskowiak will order Christmas toys and gift items which will be found under Christmas trees in this vicinity by many delighted boys and girls next December. The latest and newest education and fun toys will be shown as well as gift items for adults, and fall and winter merchandise.

Mr. Jaskowiak stated that more than 2,500 items will be displayed at the show including automotive accessories, Davis tires, car conditioners, athletic and hunting goods, wheel goods, housewares, electrical goods, power tools and accessories, radios, phonographs, television sets, radio and TV accessories, table appliances, space heaters, flashlight and lanterns.

Western Auto, now in its 48th year of operation, will hold 15 similar shows this month.
