

Mrs. Steinberg Gets 50-Year Award

PAGE—Mrs. Harold Kelly, president of the King's Daughters society, was installing officer Thursday afternoon when the members of the Women's Society of Christian Service met at the Wesleyan room of the church. She was assisted by Mrs. Lisle Mewmaw. Portions of hymns were used appropriate to the office to which each was chosen.

Mrs. Raymond Heiss had the devotions and the lesson and explained "pledge service" together with the appointments asked by the various departments. As benevolence treasurer of the church she reported that almost $1,300 had been collected for the various homes and missions.

A vote was taken to commence a new study, "Twelve Letters to the Christians". The first study will be given Monday evening, May 27, with Mrs. Edgar Stauffer in charge of the lessons, which will extend over a six week period.

Mrs. Herbert Steinberg was presented a life membership pin by Mrs. Jesse Kelly.

Officers installed were: Mrs. Jesse Kelly, president; Mrs. J. W. Finch, vice-president; Mrs. Harry Harper, recording secretary; Mrs. Herbert Steinberg, treasurer; Mrs. Raymond Heiss, promotion secretary; Mrs. Edgar Stauffer, secretary of missionary education and service; Mrs. Elmer Brownbridge, Christian social relations; Mrs. N. D. Icken, sr., student work; Mrs. Merwyn French, sr.

youth work; Mrs. Melvin Smith, children's work; Mrs. Lisle Mewmaw, spiritual life; Mrs. Harold Heiss, church activities; Mrs. Arnold Stewart, literature and publications; Mrs. George Classey, supplies; Mrs. John Lamason, status of women.

Mrs. Steinberg read a letter asking that the missionary asking be increased from $400 to $412 for the coming year. The amount was accepted and pledged.

Mrs. R. D. Copes and Mrs. Alta Finch were the hostesses.

Outdoor Cooking Is Shown, Practiced

INMAN — Mrs. Melvin Lorenz entertained the Inman Workers project club at her country home Thursday. The lesson was on outdoor cooking. Mrs. Lorenz demonstrated a whole meal, including dessert, which could be prepared outdoors. Each one present prepared such a meal.

A report was given on the tea held in O'Neill. The club voted to have a June meeting this year. Mrs. Livelle Butterfield will be the hostess, Wednesday, June 19, at her home. The afternoon lesson will be on Christmas cookies and the demonstration will be given by Mrs. Woodrow Gaughanbaugh, who went to Atkinson on Friday for the lesson.

There were 10 members present and one visitor, Mrs. Ronald Coventry of Tacoma, Wash.

Sharon Kay Stewart, Howard O Hill Are United in Marriage

PAGE—The sanctuary of the Methodist church was prettily decorated with bouquets of spring flowers for the wedding of Miss Sharon Kay Stewart and Howard O. Hill Sunday, May 19, in a 2:30 p. m., service.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Lisle Mewmaw, pastor.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edd Stewart. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hill of Orchard.

Harvey Holbrook, jr., was soloist. Accompanied by Mrs. John Lamason at the piano, he sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer". Mrs. Lamason also played the wedding music.

The bride given in marriage by her father, appeared in a floor-length gown of brocade lace over satin featuring a hoop skirt. The long torso was topped with a boat neckline and had three-quarter sleeves. All edgings were piped in satin including the scalloped low waistline.

Her fingertip veil was of illusion net caught and held in a lace headband styled like a visor type front piece. The headband trim was seed pearls and rhinestones. She carried a bridal bouquet of green cymbidiums on a prayer book.

Miss Wanda Stevens of Oenida, S. D., was maid-of-honor. Her gown was a creation of green nylon over taffeta, princess style, with empire waist and cap sleeves, with stitching of green for emphasis and a green bow in the back.

Miss Carol Halweg of Merrill, Ia., was bridesmaid. Her gown was yellow, identical in styling to the maid-of-honor's. Both wore picture hats of net to match their gowns and carried colonial bouquets of white and yellow daisies with streamers matching their costumes.

Debbie Asher of Page and Marcia Eirich of Omaha were flower girls. They were dressed in floor-length dresses of polished cotton in green for Debbie and yellow for Marcia. Their head bands matched their dresses. They scattered rose petals before the bride.

Mickey Stewart, brother of the bride, was candlelighter.

Warren Hill, brother of the bride, was bestman and Leonard Mettis of Orchard served as groomsmen for his friend.

Larry Muldoff, cousin of the bride, and Clifford Erb of Orchard ushered.

The mother of the bride chose a navy blue coat-dress with a light blue contrast in the two-piece ensemble and white accessories.

The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of pink linen with white accessories.

Both the mothers and grandmothers wore white carnation corsages.

A reception for 150 guests was held at the church parlors following the ceremony. Mesdames William Buxton, Gerald Lamason, Melvin Smith and Arnold Stewart were in charge of the serving arrangements.

Mrs. Ben Asher poured and Elaine Oetjen of Sac City, Ia., served the wedding cake.

The bride is a graduate of the Page high school, class of 1955. The bridegroom was graduated from Orchard high school, class of 1952. The bride attended Morningside college and Wayne college and has had employment at O'Neill and with the Food, Machinery and Chemical Corp. at San Jose, Calif. The bridegroom is stationed in California with the navy.

Johnny Mullen and his orchestra of Atkinson furnished the music for the free wedding dance Sunday night at Summerland near Ewing. Following the dance the couple commenced their return to California.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Asher of Woodbine, Ia.; Mr. and Mrs. Dale Asher and sons of Logan, Ia.; Miss Carol Helwig, Mrs. Myrtle Bogner and Larry Johnson, all of Merrill, Ia.; Mrs. Eleanor Oetjen and daughter, Elaine, and Lawrence Bentsen, all of Sac City, Ia.; Mr. and Mrs. Edd Hill of Kilgore; Mr. and Mrs. William Eirich, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Koester, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Voelck, all of Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hill and Don, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Hill and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Maple and family, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Asch, A. G. Hill and Bob, all of Orchard; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Leiding and Mr. and Mrs. Archie Walton, all of Ewing.
