Darlene Look May Bride in Church Rites

SPENCER—At a 10 a. m. mass at St. Mary's Catholic church in Spencer, Miss Darlene M. Look, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Look of Spencer, was united in marriage to Edward J. McAllister, son of Mrs. Mary McAllister of Spencer. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. William Foster Wednesday, May 29.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in an imported tulle and nylon tulle gown over bridal satin. It was fashioned with a molded bodice, long tapered sleeves and lace appliques trimmed the petite round collar. The floor-length bouffant skirt was banded in lace. Her illusion fingertip veil was caught by a tiara of sequins and tiny seed pearls. Her flowers were blue eperettes and white carnations.

Miss Maxine McAllister of Spencer, a sister of the bridegroom, was maid-of-honor. Mrs. Joe Look of Spencer was a bridesmaid. Little Miss Joletta McAllister of Naper, a niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. Louis Kuhn of Crawford, a nephew of the bridegroom, was ring-bearer.

Richard Look of Spencer, a brother of the bride, was best-man. Groomsman was James McAllister of Naper, a brother of the bridegroom. Ushers were Emil Tejral of Spencer and Hiram Johnson of O'Neill.

The maid-of-honor and bridesmaid's gowns were identical white nylon lace over blue tulle. They featured draped boat necklines of blue nylon chiffon and matching streamers. Their flowers were daisies with blue-and-white feathered carnations. Mrs. McAllister, the bridegroom's mother, appeared in a blue flowered printed silk dress.

A reception and dinner was held at the Community hall.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will be at home in Wakefield.

Mrs. Look is a graduate of Spencer high school and attended Wayne State Teachers' college for 1 1/2 years. She is employed as a bookkeeper at the Farmers' Coop in Wakefield.

Mr. McAllister graduated from Spencer high school and is attending Wayne State Teachers' college. He spent two years in the service.
