By the time you readers receive your paper this week your reporter and husband will be on the way to Massachusetts to visit their son, Otto, and family, and expect to be gone two or three weeks. However, I hope to have some good soul take over in my absence, who will probably furnish you with better material than you've been finding here, and I too, shall be looking for the Rock Falls column. So until later, bye now. I'll be seeing you.
