

Pat DeBolt Is June Bride Here

First Presbyterian church was the scene of the 4 p.m. wedding of Miss Pat DeBolt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Durlin DeBolt of O'Neill, and Larry Krause, son of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Krause of Kingsley. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Olen Kennell, church pastor.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in a chantilly lace gown featuring a portrait neckline and cap sleeves with matching lace mitts. Pleated panels set between delicate bands of embroidery over a nylon tulle bouffant skirt accented the fitted bodice. The very full skirt ended in a chapel train. The fingertip veil was secured with a half cap of lace with iridescent sequins and pearls.

She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses. She wore a pearl necklace and earrings, a gift of the bridegroom.

The matron-of-honor, Mrs. Richard Farrion of Rapid City, S. D., sister of the bride, and the bridesmaid, Mrs. Frank Merchant of Lincoln, wore identical white misty sheer waltz-length gowns with bow-knot design, trimmed in orchid crystallette. The headpieces were of orchid crystallette and pearls. They carried colonial bouquets of lavender mums.

The bestman was Gary Bollin of Kingsley, friend of the bridegroom, Max Van Buren of Spencer, Ia., was groomsmen. Ushers were Mr. Richard Glidden of Spencer, Ia., and Max Clark of Kingsley, Ia.

Miss June Krause, sister of the bridegroom, sang "I Love You Truly", "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer." She was accompanied on the organ by Miss Nancy Kennell, who played the traditional wedding music.

Candlelighters were the Misses Kaye Karen Krause, sisters of the bridegroom.

The bride's mother wore a mauve pink lace dress with beige accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue dress with white accessories. Both wore white carnation corsages.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Church parlors. Mrs. Bruce McElhane cut the wedding cake with Miss Clarice Nelson and Miss Mardy Johnson pouring Miss Kay Allen-dorfer and Karen Lashmett had charge of the gift table. Miss Kathy Brady served and Miss Carolyn Lindberg was in charge of the guest book.

For traveling, the bride wore an orchid linen sheath dress with white accessories. After a week's wedding trip the couple will make their home in Sioux City.
