

Bible School

PAGE—A week of Bible school was concluded Friday evening with a program at the Wesleyan Methodist church.

The program began with the children marching in, carrying the church and national flags, the Bible and giving the salutes.

Theme of the school was "Pioneering for Christ." The children repeated the 15th Psalm and the Lord's prayer in unison.

Each teacher presented her section which offered the scripture verses which had been learned. The junior department presented a "Trail of Life" chart and explained the various comparisons of frontier living with the venturing forth on a "Pioneering for Christ" program for everyday living.

The group sang a song naming the 12 disciples. Aetha Rutherford and Carolyn Sorensen learned the books of the Old Testament. All sang the "Traveler's Song"—the 121st Psalm.

Rev. Bert Baty, church pastor, offered benediction.
