Monowi Methodist church . . . its doors never closed.

Monowi Church Marks Its 50th Anniversary

By MRS. MERRILL ANDERSON MONOWI—Despite adverse weather and road conditions, the 50th anniversary celebration at the Methodist church in Monowi was observed Sunday, June 16, and was well attended.

A few pioneer souls in the early nineties recognized the need of a place of worship. With combined effort they succeeded in founding a church in this eastern Boyd county community.

The Methodist church was organized in 1903 with five members. Services were held in the waiting room of the depot. On various occasions evangelistic meetings were held at the old school house near the Alford cemetery.

Many recall the untiring efforts of William Alford, Sr., a devout Christian. Mr. Alford served as superintendent and Sunday-school teacher for many years. As recalled by many members of his family, he never missed a Sunday service. His home oftentimes was a camp stool for the missionary or minister.

The first minister appointed was Rev. Walker C. Kelly. He arrived March 2, 1903. Disillusioned at prospects confronting him, he was ready to retrace his move. However, after much persuasion, he decided to "try it" for a while. Again, Mr. Alford's hospitality proved valuable.

Time progressed as did the enthusiasm of this group. The village donated a small tract of land, also contributed $100 for the church building, which was completed in 1907, and dedicated by the presiding elder, Thomas Bithell, on June 16, 1907.

In the year of 1905 a livery barn was built to shelter the minister's driving horses. The small community encountered many disappointments and the church suffered the loss of many of its members who moved away through drought conditions down upon this area in 1908. But the church doors never closed.

Many former members were unable to attend the anniversary services because of distance or health conditions, but some forwarded messages by letter and excerpts were read.

Familiar names of past ministers of the church are J. H. Allen, B. H. Berten, H. A. Hornady, M. E. Richmond and G. E. Mayfield.

The afternoon session conducted by Rev. Anna Nelson, pastor of Lynch and Monowi churches, consisted of reminiscing events of yesteryear, exhibition of a friendship quilt by Mrs. Clement Christensen (containing 270 names made up by members of the Ladies Aid society and pieced together by Mrs. Christensen's mother, Mrs. S. E. Looker), presentation of a song written by evangelist Albert W. Ahrends and dedicated to his daughter, Rev. Ahrends assisted with revival meetings in Monowi some years ago. He and Mrs. Ahrends are now residing in York.

The pianist for the day was Mrs. Lawson Lightfoot of Spencer whose father, the late Rev. John Hewitson, died in 1937 while pastor of the Lynch and Monowi churches.

Those attending from a distance included Morris Gardener of San Francisco, Calif., and Pete Jewel of Crofton.

Following the close of the commemoration services, luncheon was served by the ladies of the church.
