

Stuff, Nonsense on Stage Proves Success

"Womanless Wedding" rocked a full house Friday evening at the American Legion auditorium. It was a benefit show, featuring 45 males in satire on political, comic, entertainment and newspaper personalities. William ("Bill") Jansen wrote the script and produced the show to one of the largest crowds ever packed into the Legion hall. Door and advance ticket sales totaled $788. Proceeds will be used to purchase stage curtains and other stage improvements. Foreground (left-to-right)—Robert ("Bob") Cole, Morin Plenty; Charles Fox, Blossom; Dwight Worcester, convict; Sam Fuhrer, Old Black Joe; Al Hamik, baby (in carriage); Fred

Audrey Henderson, Harold J. Coburn Exchange Vows

EWING—Candelabra and seasonal flowers decorated the altar at the United Presbyterian church at Ewing for the wedding of Miss Audrey Henderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest I. Henderson of Orchard, and Harold J. Coburn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Coburn of O'Neill. Dr. William H. Ross officiated at the 8 p. m., double-ring ceremony.

Mrs. Lewis Cople of Omaha played the traditional wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Norman Trowbridge of Page, who sang "I Love You Truly" and "Wedding Prayer." Both are cousins of the bride.

The bride appeared in a ballerina length gown of chantilly lace and nylon tulle over burnil satin. The moded bodice of lace was accented by a portrait neckline trimmed with seed pearls and iridescent sequins, and long fitted sleeves forming a point over the wrist. The bouffant skirt was designed with alternating flounces of lace and tulle. Her fingertip silk illusion veil was held in place by a half-hat crown edged with seed pearls and sequins. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and white stephanotis. Her jewelry was a single strand of pearls, and pearl earrings, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried her grandmother Weber's wedding handkerchief. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. Carroll Marcellus of Stuart, sister of the bride, was matron-of-honor a bow accented-length gown was of blue crystal with portrait neckline and cummerbund. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Miss Diane Trowbridge of Page, a cousin of the bride, was flowergirl. Her gown was similar to that of the matron-of-honor with bow accented cummerbund. She carried a basket of seasonal flowers. Both wore head bands of blue crystal accented with flowers. Candlelighter was Mrs. Gerry Coburn of Lincoln.

The bridegroom was attired in a light brown business suit with a pink rose boutonniere. Gerry Coburn of Lincoln was bestman for his brother. He wore a gray business suit with a pink carnation boutonniere. Ushers were Carroll Marcellus of Stuart and Edwin Siebert of Atkinson, a cousin of the bridegroom. Both wore business suits with white carnation boutonnieres. Ricky Kramer of Atkinson, cousin of the bridegroom, was ringbearer.

Eldon Henderson, brother of the bride, and Mrs. Lester Hansen of Wayne had charge of the guest book.

The bride's mother chose a beige lace dress with blue accessories; and the groom's mother chose a rose lace dress with white accessories. Both wore white carnation corsages. The grandmother of the bride and bridegroom also had white carnation corsages.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church annex. Mrs. Lester Hansen, Mrs. Carroll Marcellus and Mrs. Gerry Coburn had charge of the gifts. Mrs. Keith Kennedy of Page cut and served the wedding cake which was baked by the bride's mother and sister, Mrs. Lester Hansen and Mrs. Loy Schneider of Sandusky, O., poured. Miss Ramona Wayman, Mrs. Louis Peter of O'Neill, Miss Marian Moore of Fremont, and Miss Bonidel Henderson of Orchard, Mesdames Z. H. Fry, Dale Napier, Lionel Gunter, George Montgomery and Wilbur Bennett of Ewing assisted with the serving. Guests attending were from Page, O'Neill, Atkinson, Stuart, Omaha, Lincoln, Fremont, Wisner, Wayne, Orchard, Plainview, Crookston and Sandusky, O.

The bride is a graduate of Ewing high school and attended Wayne State Teachers college. She has taught rural schools in Antelope and Holt counties and in Norfolk. The bridegroom is engaged in farming and ranching.

For traveling, the bride chose a light gray and turquoise dress with white accessories and a pink rose corsage from her bridal bouquet. After a wedding trip to the Black Hills, the couple will make their home in the Phoenix community.
