Letter to Editor

Lincoln, Nebr.

Somebody has very kindly sent me a copy of the recent issue of The Frontier. I discovered that I have made the front page of your fine paper. I assure you it is quite unusual for me to make the front page. It is a good picture and I appreciate it.

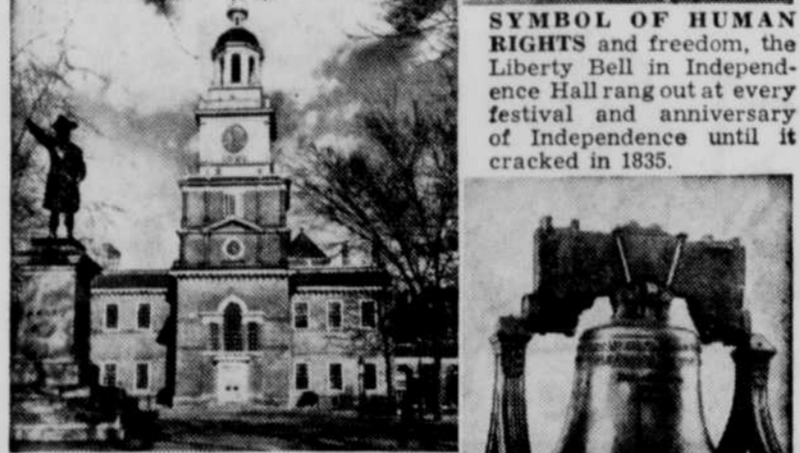

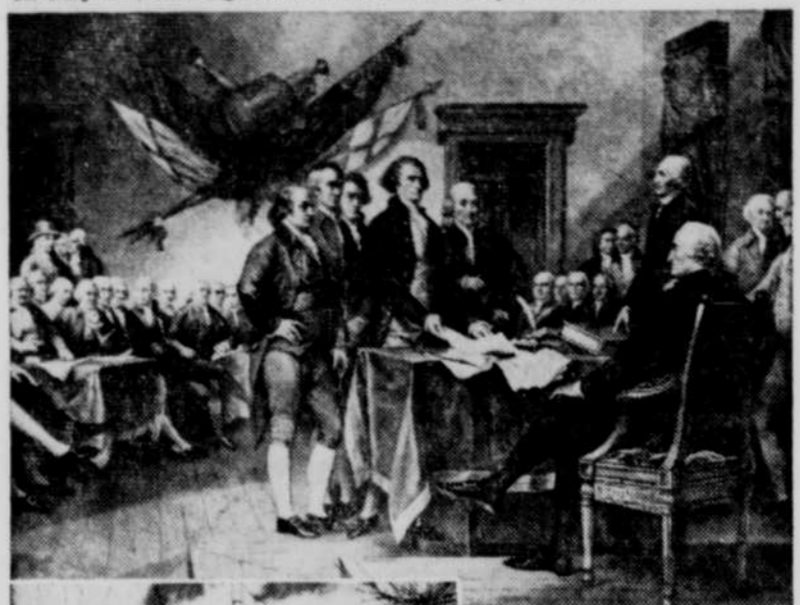

I also appreciate the nice story which you wrote concerning the father-son banquet. You certainly caught the drift of what I was trying to say in very fine fashion.

JOHN E. CURTISS

U.S.—Bulwark of Freedom

BIRTHDAY OF A FREE NATION as the Declaration of Independence was presented to Congress in 1776. Contrary to popular belief, this historic document was not signed by Congress on July 4th. Instead, the Act by which the original 13 states broke colonial allegiance to Great Britain was approved by Congress July 2, proclaimed on July 4th, and signed at various times up to Nov. 4.

SYMBOL OF HUMAN RIGHTS and freedom, the Liberty Bell in Independence Hall rang out at every festival and anniversary of Independence until it cracked in 1835.

BIRTHPLACE OF OUR NATION was Independence Hall, Philadelphia, where Continental Congress met, Declaration of Independence adopted and proclaimed, Washington appointed Commander-in-Chief, and U. S. Constitution framed.
