Exchange Vows

ORCHARD—St. Peter's English Lutheran church of Orchard was the scene Sunday afternoon, July 14, of the wedding of Miss Evelyn Ruroede of Omaha, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Ruroede of Ewing, and Warren Peden, Jr., of O'Neill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Peden, Sr., of Sharp Park, Calif. Rev. Walter Seefeldt performed the double-ring ceremony.

The organist, Mrs. Martin Helmrichs of Orchard, played the wedding marches and accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Eugene Kurgewit of Ewing, friend of the bride, who sang "Oh Perfect Love."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length hoop-skirted gown of imported Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over slipper satin. The molded bodice was fashioned with an illusion yoke featuring a lace mandarin collar and long sleeves tapering to a deep point over the hand. A lace peplum fell over the hips in deep points through the full bouffant skirt. Her fingertip veil of imported French illusion was held with a cap of white lace and she carried a bouquet of red roses with white satin ribbon.

Miss Norma Jean Ruroede of Omaha, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor. She wore a floor-length gown of blue lace and net over taffeta. The molded strapless bodice of lace featuring a hand pleated trim was topped with a cut away lace jacket with cap sleeves and small collar. The very full bouffant skirt with tier on tier of net flounces was worn over hoops. She wore a matching headband of nylon braid and carried a bouquet of white baby mums tied with blue satin ribbon.

The bridesmaid, Miss Ruth Peden, and the junior bridesmaid, Miss Margaret Peden, both of Sharp Park, sisters of the bridegroom, wore gowns of blue net over taffeta with blue headbands. Each carried a bouquet of white baby mums tied with a blue satin ribbon.

Miss Betsy Ross and Miss Janet Trueblood both of Omaha, friends of the bride, were candlelighters. Miss Ross wore a strapless gown of blue net over taffeta topped with a blue velvet jacket. Miss Trueblood's gown was of pink net over taffeta.

Flowergirls were Miss Cheryl Marie Meyer and Miss Kathleen Faye Meyer of Orchard, nieces of the bride. They wore identical hoop-skirted, floor length gowns of pink nylon and each carried a bouquet of assorted seasonal flowers.

Donald Maw of O'Neill, friend of the bridegroom, served as best man. Gerald Ruroede of Ewing, brother of the bride, and La Vern Engler of O'Neill, brother-in-law of the bride, ushered. The bridegroom and his attendants were attired in dark business suits and all wore white carnation boutonnieres.

The mother of the bride wore a navy blue dress with pink accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a flowered nylon dress with a blue background with white accessories. Miss J. J. Peden of Aberdeen, S. D., grandmother of the bridegroom, wore a lavender dress. All three wore corsages of white carnations.

Also present was the bridegroom's grandfather, J. C. Ireland of Moberge, S. D.

The youngest person present was the bride's eight-day old niece, Elizabeth Lynette Engler of O'Neill.

Mrs. Carol Courchaine of Sharp Park, Calif., sister of the bridegroom and Mrs. LaVern Engler of O'Neill, sister of the bride, had charge of the guest book.

Following the ceremony a reception was held for 125 guests in the church basement.

Waitresses were Miss Faye Scheer, Miss Lana Cleveland, Miss Altha Lou Miller all of Ewing, and Mr. Carroll Marcellus of Stuart. Mrs. Delmar Panstul of McLean, friend of the bride, poured the punch. Mrs. James Meyer of Orchard, sister of the bride, cut the four tiered wedding cake. Ladies helping with the reception were members of St. Peter's Lutheran Ladies Aid.

Assisting at the gift table were Mrs. Melvin Scheer of Ewing, and Miss Norma Jean Timmerman and Beverly Linquist, both of O'Neill.

The bride chose a dress of pink flowered silk with white accessories for traveling. After a week's trip to the Black Hills the couple will reside in O'Neill.

The bride was graduated from Ewing high school with the class of 1930. She attended Wayne State Teacher's College and Commercial Extension of Omaha. She taught six years in rural school and until recently was employed by the Mutual Insurance company of Omaha.

The bridegroom was graduated from high school in Cheyenne, Wyo., and the University of Wyoming at Laramie.

At present he is employed as assistant county agent at O'Neill. He plans to attend the University of Nebraska in Lincoln this fall.

Guests at the wedding were from Orchard, Ewing, Fremont, Chambers, O'Neill, Meadow Grove, Page, Bloomfield, Norfolk, McLean, Lincoln, Stuart, Atkinson, Council Bluffs, Ia., Aberdeen, S. D., Moberge, S. D., and Sharp Park, Calif.
