

Return from Colorado—

Miss Thelma Young, Miss Mildred Keyes and Marvin Rouse drove to Mankato, Kans., Tuesday, July 2, to visit the Harold Young family for a few days. They went to Walch, Colo., where they visited the Lawrence Clark family. They spent a few days sightseeing at Colorado Springs, Colo., and then went to Denver where they were guests of the Leonard Young family. Two of the Young boys, Sandy and David accompanied them home to visit their grandfather, Ralph Young. They arrived here last Thursday.

Page Family Returns to California—

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Page and Barbara of San Bernardino, Calif., left Wednesday, July 10, after visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Page and other relatives for about 10 days. The Pages, formerly of Page moved their furniture to California.

'Best Team in O'Neill's History'

"It seems to me," writes W. J. Hammond, 1105 1/2 South Bronson ave., Los Angeles, Calif., "that O'Neill should be represented in your pictures of oldtime baseball teams. Enclosed is a picture of a team of 50 years ago." First row (seated)—Ed Alberts, catcher and fielder; Primley, pitcher; Bill Wilson, catcher; Jack Brophy, second base; Frank Biglin, shortstop; Bill Gagahan, third base; standing—Charles Richter, fielder; Jim F. O'Donnell, umpire; Keith Edwards

(Judge Kinkaid's secretary), fielder; D. H. Cronin, scorekeeper; Clarence Campbell, fielder; Sanford Parker, manager; Tim Hanley, fielder; Montana Jack Sullivan. Mascots are Walter Campbell (left) and Julius D. Cronin. Alberts was a barnstormer playing with the Cowboys; Bradley (not pictured) was the mainstay pitcher and later managed a team for years in the Three-I league. Leo Carney says "without a doubt this was one of the best teams in O'Neill's history."

Trail Ride Planned—

The Antelope Saddle club will meet Sunday, July 21, at the R. Reed farm, three miles north and one-half mile west of Orchard. The trail ride will start at 11 a.m. A basket picnic dinner will be held at noon. The afternoon's entertainment will begin at 1:30 p.m. A picnic area with plenty of shade is available. "Everyone is cordially invited," Mr. Reed said.

Mrs. Marlin Babutzke... the bride is the former Lucille Nekolite.—O'Neill Photo Co.

Lucille Nekolite, Marlin Babutzke in July Nuptials

Miss Lucille Nekolite, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Nekolite of O'Neill, and Marlin Babutzke, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Babutzke of O'Neill, were united in marriage by Very Rev. Timothy O'Sullivan in St. Patrick's church here Tuesday, July 9, at 9 a.m. in a double-ring ceremony. Miss Bonnie Burival was soloist.

The bride appeared in a white tulle and lace gown with an off shoulder style bodice. The finger-tip length veil was held in place by white pearls. The skirt, which was over a hoop petticoat, was full with a pleated panel down the front. The bride wore gauntlets and carried a bouquet of roses and daisies.

The maid-of-honor, Shirley Babutzke, wore a light blue satin and net gown and carried a bouquet of roses and daisies. Leo Babutzke, a brother of the bridegroom, served as bestman. Jack Ramold and Donald Schneider, of O'Neill, were the ushers.

Following the ceremony a breakfast was served at the M&M for the bridal party. A dinner was held at the bride's parents home.

A reception was held in the American Legion hall for over one hundred guests.

The couple departed for the Black Hills for a wedding trip. They will reside in O'Neill.

WHEN DISASTER STRIKES, CONSUMERS' "DEPTH" COUNTS

Operating on a state-wide basis, Consumers Public Power District is "deep" in manpower, in equipment, and in know-how.

More than 350 experienced line and service personnel, using 208 two-way radio trucks and cars and the most modern equipment, are strategically located throughout the state. Their operations in the field are directed and coordinated by 50 radio stations.

All of this means that Consumers is able to maintain dependable electric service to your community with greater efficiency, even in times of emergency. If disaster strikes, Consumers' crews are always among the first to arrive on the scene. Men and machines, mobilized from the entire system, if necessary, work around the clock until service is restored.

Consumers is proud to serve as your efficiently-operated, self-supporting source of dependable low-cost electricity.
