Couple Bound for Delaware After Nuptials Here

Pink and white gladioli decorated the altar of First Methodist church at O'Neill Sunday, August 4, when Miss Lynette Johnson became the bride of David Anderson.

The double-ring 4 p. m. ceremony was performed by Rev. R. L. Embree, district superintendent.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell A. Johnson of O'Neill. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Anderson of Denison, Ia.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She chose a ballerina-length gown of silk faille. The fitted bodice was styled with princess lines, fashioned with a bateau neckline dipping to a "V" in the back with small cap sleeves.

The bouffant skirt featured a fan tail of pleats. Her silk illusion veil was held by a crown set with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. She wore a single strand of pearls—a gift from the bridegroom. She carried two cymbidiums on a white Bible with white satin ribbon streamers.

The bridesmaid, Miss Sandra Anderson, sister of the bridegroom, wore a gown of powder blue crystaletta in ballerina length. A bias band circling the waist into a deep point at the back with a bow trimmed the full gathered skirt. She wore a spray of pink gladioli in her hair and carried a bouquet of white daisies.

The flowergirl was Miss Debra Schultz of O'Neill. She wore a dress of blue nylon and carried a basket of flowers.

James Johnson, brother of the bride, was the groom's bestman. The bridegroom and his bestman both wore charcoal suits with white boutonnières.

Steven Harmon was the ring bearer. Rolland Johnson, brother of the bride and Lloyd Waldo, cousin of the bride, were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue shadow silk dress with white accessories.

The groom's mother chose a grey silk organza dress with pink accessories. Both wore corsages of pink carnations.

Darla Waldo and Gwenda Schultz were candlelighters. Miss Irene Searles of Omaha, cousin of the bride, sang, "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer." She was accompanied on the organ by Miss Esther Kinner, of O'Neill.

After the ceremony, a reception for one hundred guests was held in the church basement with Methodist Ladies serving Miss Shirley Sterns and Miss Jeannette Osborne, both of Atkinson, cousins of the bride, presided at the tea table.

Mrs. Don Maw and Mrs. Keih Kounousky were in charge of the gifts and Miss Marilyn Fetrow had charge of the guest book.

Servers were the Misses Betty Fetrow, Jane Peterson and Joan Searles. The bride's table was decorated with a crocheted table cloth made by the bride's aunt. The center piece was the three tiered cake.

The bride attended the O'Neill high school and has been employed as a sales girl in Denver, Colo.

The bridegroom attended the Shattuck military school at Fairport, Minn., and at present is serving in the air force in Wilmington, Dela.

Following a wedding trip to Wildwood Beach, N. J., the couple will make their home at Wilmington.

For traveling, the bride wore a powder blue dress of polished satin with white accessories.

FIREMEN CALLED—O'Neill firemen were summoned to a fire in the rear of the Donohoe building on South Fourth street. Mrs. F. J. O'Connell sounded the alarm. Electric wiring was blamed and there was no damage.
