Karen Kanzelmeyer Bride in Atkinson Church Ceremony

ATKINSON—Miss Karen Elaine Kanzelmeyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Kanzelmeyer of Atkinson, was united in marriage to Vern E. Hamik of Hastings, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hamik of Atkinson, at 4 p. m., double ring ceremony at St. Joseph's Catholic church Monday, August 12. Rev. Robert Morocco officiated.

The bride appeared in a ballerina length nylon gown over silk tulle. It featured a gathered over bodice.

A bow decorated the front. Her fingertip illusion veil was caught by a seeded pearl crown. She carried pink roses and wore pearl earrings and matching necklace, which were gifts of the bridegroom.

Mr. Hamik appeared in a light suit and had a pink rose boutonniere.

Miss Syrena Withers of Atkinson, the maid of honor, wore a ballerina length turquoise gown with a full gathered skirt and short sleeves. Her headpiece was a halo of white roses, which matched her bouquet.

Marvin Hamik was his brother's bestman. Ushers were LaVern Claussen and Arlen Brown, both of Atkinson.

Miss Leona Kilmer accompanied Miss Audrey Coxhill, soloist.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents for about 60 guests. The three-tier wedding cake was baked by Mrs. Clark Humphries. It centered the table, which was covered with white linen and was decorated with candles. Those helping were the Mesdames Gerald O'Connor, Lloyd Thompson, Claude Humphries and George Tracy. Mrs. LaVern Claussen had charge of the guest book. Mrs. Gene Batenhorst of Stuart poured. Mrs. Arlen Brown had charge of the gifts.

After a wedding trip to Lake of the Ozarks, the couple will be at home at 730 No. Kansas, Hastings.

Mrs. Hamik is a graduate of Atkinson high school, class of 1956, and has been employed at the Fairmont nursing home in Fairmont. Mr. Hamik is a graduate of St. Joseph's high school in Atkinson, class of 1952, and is employed at the Morrison-Quirk Grain corporation in Hastings.

Among those attending from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hamik of Hastings, Mrs. Merle Hammers of San Pedro, Calif., Harry H. Kanzelmeyer of Portland, Ore.; Mrs. John Drummond and Miss A. M. Kanzelmeyer, both of Alma; Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Higgins of O'Neill, and Mr. and Mrs. Sy Farrier of Chambers, and others from West Point and Stuart.

NOW RAIL CLERK
Richard ("Dick") Perry, veteran postal clerk here, has joined the railway postal service and is now stationed at Long Pine, working on Chicago & North Western trains 13 and 14 between Long Pine and Chadron. His family will remain here until housing can be secured.

Mr. and Mrs. Kevin Kocina of Creighton came Sunday for their daughter, Lynn, who had been visiting her grandmother, Mrs. W. H. Harty since last Thursday.

150 Cattle Expected Today

There will be between 150 and 200 head of cattle today (Thursday). There will be one consignor with 30 head of top quality yearling steers; Frank Murray of O'Neill will be bringing in some calves; another consignor from near Ewing is bringing in 15 crossbred calves. There will be numerous consignments ranging in size from 10 to 20 head. Looks like the sales will be picking up each week now, both in number and in quality. Probably 150 feeder pigs at today's sale, starting at 1.
