Rod E. Wilmoth
Exchange Vows

Miss Marilyn Lindberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold L. Lindberg of O'Neill, and Rod E. Wilmoth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Wilmoth of Omaha, were united in marriage Sunday, August 11, at 3 p.m., at First Methodist church here. Rev. Glenn Kennicott officiated in the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in a white nylon dress that featured a molded bodice and scoop neckline. Medallions of Venise embroidery edged the neckline and formed tiny puff sleeves. The bouffant skirt was accented by panels of embroidered motifs and ended in a chapel train.

The elbow length veil had a crown of Venise embroidery. She carried a white orchid on a white ribbon, a gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Carolyn Lindberg, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor. She wore a dress of turquoise shantung with sleeveless bodice and molded neckline. Her gown had a full skirt except for a front panel of turquoise taffeta. The cummerbund was of shantung. Her satin shoes were dyed to match the panel of the dress and she carried a nosegay bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

Miss Lois Puckett of Atkinson and Miss Gerry Van Buskirk of Rushville, sorority sisters of the bride, were bridesmaids. They appeared in dresses identical to the maid-of-honor except in copper toned shantung with orange front panel of taffeta. Their shoes were dyed to match the panel. They also carried nosegay bouquets of white mums.

All wore gold head bands and gold earrings, gifts of the bride. James Wiley of Omaha was bestman. Richard Petersen of Lincoln and Thomas Sieg of Lexington, fraternity brothers of the bridegroom, were groomsmen.

The bridegroom and his attendants wore tuxedos and white carnation boutonnieres.

Harvey Nelson and Don Gorrell, both of Omaha, ushered.

Altar decorations consisted of the lighted cross and candles and baskets of white mums.

Charles Houser of Omaha was organist and played before the ceremony and the traditional wedding music. He also accompanied Duane Booth of Lincoln, soloist, who sang "The Wedding Prayer" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The mother of the bride wore a navy blue sheer dress with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a light blue and white embroidered dress with accessories to match.

The grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Augusta Lindberg of O'Neill, and the two mothers had corsages of small white mums.

A reception followed the ceremony in the church parlors. Miss Gloria Pollat of Omaha cut the cake and Miss Sue Christensen of Fremont and Miss Norma Timmerman of O'Neill assisted at the tea table. Miss Beverly Linquist of O'Neill and Mrs. Duane Booth had charge of the gifts. Miss Janice Holsclaw of O'Neill had charge of the guest-book.

Following a wedding trip to Red Feather lakes and Denver, Colo., the bride and bridegroom will make their home in Lincoln.

The bride was born and reared at O'Neill. She is a granddaughter of Mrs. Augusta Lindberg, early settlers of this vicinity. She was graduated from O'Neill high school and has attended Nebraska Wesleyan university at Lincoln the past two years. She is a member of Phi Mu sorority.

Mr. Wilmoth has resided in Omaha and is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Eddy G. Wilmoth of Omaha. He was graduated from Benson high school there and has attended Nebraska Wesleyan university the past two years. He will continue his study at Wesleyan where he is preparing to enter the ministry of the Methodist church. He is a member of Phi Kappa Tau fraternity.

The following guests from out-of-town attended the ceremony: Mrs. Don Gorrell, Mrs. Charles Houser and family, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Nelsen, Myron Pollat, Miss Barbara Harrig, Mr. and Mrs. Vic Aden and Fred, Miss Phyllis Nelson, Miss Minnie Lou Scharmann, Merl Schaefer, Robert Farquhar, Lavanne Drake, Duane Birginal, Mr. and Mrs. James Adamson, Mr. and Mrs. H.
