

Marybelle O'Connor,
Roland L. McClellan
Exchange V o w s

Miss Marybelle O'Connor became the bride of Roland L. McClellan at 10 a. m. Saturday, August 17 at St. Patrick's Catholic church in O'Neill. Rev. Robert Duffy officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Miss Rita Jilg was organist and played the traditional wedding march. She accompanied Miss Bonnie Burival, who sang "Ave Maria" and "On This Day". The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Ida O'Connor and the late James F. O'Connor of O'Neill. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Don McClellan of O'Neill.

The altar was decorated with baskets of mixed gladioli. The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Hugh J. O'Connor of Atkinson, wore a gown of white chantilly lace and nylon tulle over satin. The fitted bodice featured a high patterned designed sash neckline and long lace sleeves fitted and pointed at the wrists.

The very bouffant tulle skirt in chapel-length and worn over hoop petticoats, was shirred to the fitted waistline. The front and back of the skirt was of matching lace that featured scalloped patterned lace above the tulle hemline. Scatter lace flower applique trimmed the sides of the tulle skirt. A rosepoint lace plateau with side clips held a double tiered chapel length veil of imported French illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of feather carnations with a built in white orchid corsage.

Mrs. William Griffin of O'Neill, cousin of the bride, was matron-of-honor. She wore a gown of shell pink-Swiss organdy over matching silk taffeta. The fitted bodice featured a portrait neckline and brief shoulder covering. The ballerina length skirt, worn over stiffened petticoats was shirred to a wide crushed two toned silk taffeta midrift, very fitted, and continuing to the back releasing into draped streamers. A wide hair braid plateau repeated the deep pink tone in the taffeta ribbon trim. Her shoes were dyed to match. She wore a white picture hat with a pink bow and carried a small cascade of white mums inner-woven with pink netting and pink ribbon streamers.

Mrs. Frank Harrington of Omaha, friend of the bride, and Miss Rose Mary Pursell of Council Bluffs, Ia., and Mary Gay Putnam of Omaha, nurse classmates of the bride, appeared in identical gowns to the matron-of-honor, blue organdy with matching shoes and hats. They also carried small cascade bouquets of white mums inner-woven with blue netting and blue ribbon streamers. All wore pearl earrings and white gloves the gift of the bride. Roland Shald of Stuart was bestman. Virgil Holtz, Robert McClellan of O'Neill and Robert Schneider of Omaha were groomsmen. The bridegroom and his attendants wore white jackets and black trousers. All wore white carnation boutonnières.

The bride's mother wore a light blue linen dress with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a two-piece dress of mauve silk dacon with white accessories. Both wore white feather carnation corsages.

Following the ceremony, a dinner and reception was held at the Townhouse in O'Neill with 100 guests attending. A three-tiered wedding cake centered the bride's table. Mrs. Roland Shald of Stuart had charge of the guest book. Mrs. Donald Myers of Stuart, Mrs. Robert Schneider of Omaha and Mrs. Morris Kirkpatrick of O'Neill had charge of the gifts.

The bride and bridegroom will make their home at 4109 Lard St., Omaha.

The bride is a graduate of O'Neill public school and St. Catherine's school of nursing in Omaha. For the past year and a half she has been employed by St. Anthony's hospital in O'Neill. The bridegroom attended O'Neill public school and is attending the Nebraska School of barbering in Omaha.

Out-of-town guests attending were Dick Heerten of Ainsworth; Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Krogh of Fairbault, Minn.; Mr. and Mrs.

Oliver Powell of Los Angeles, Calif.; Mrs. Melvin Dewey of Waterloo, Ia.; Mrs. John Pinnit, Dorothy and Bob of Chadron; Mr. and Mrs. John Larsen of Millboro, S. D.; Mr. and Mrs. John Heerten of Springview. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Titus of Bassett; Mrs. Corinne Putnam of Fremont; Miss Margaret Gleason of Platte Center; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harrington and Robin, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schneider, Miss Mary Gay Putnam, all of Omaha; Rose Mary Pursell of Council Bluffs, Ia.; Mrs. Frankie Baldwin of Spaulding; Mrs. Frances Knapp, Hugh O'Connor, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Peregoy and Mary Frances and Miss Helen Mariens all of Atkinson; Mr. and Mrs. Bud Van Fleet and Ronnie of Brunswick, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Troshynski of Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. Roland Shald and Mrs. James Batenhorst of Stuart; Frank Foreman, Mr. and Mrs. John Conrad and Mrs. Georgia McGinnis all of Emmet, and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Myers of Stuart.
